ORDER

THIS MATTER came before the Court pursuant to Petition for Appointment of Administrator with Will Annexed by Deloris Johnson, an adult child of the decedent, Alice K. Alford. The Petition prayed for appointment of Hon. Trevor H. Coleman, attorney at law, as Administrator. At the hearing held on June 19, 1996, the Petitioner proved the handwritten document of the decedent by one witness, and called a person who allegedly notarized the handwritten document. However, objection was made by the Hon. Max W. Parker, counsel for the remaining children, that the notary did not "acknowledge" testator's signature, and also objected upon the grounds that the document was signed "Mom". (Later, at the continuance of this matter, on June 26, 1996, Hon. Trevor Coleman brought forth an additional witness, Mr. Parrish, and thereby proved the handwritten document to the Court.)

Also present at the hearing in this matter was the Hon. Mark Blankenship, attorney for Allan Alford, the spouse of the decedent, Alice K. Alford.

Attorney Parker introduced a Last Will and Testament of Alice K. Alford which was prepared by Mark Blankenship, witnessed and notarized on January 8, 1990. Article III of said Will had been marked through and noted, "I changed my mind", "Alice Alford". (It was later established that Article III devised the real property of the decedent to another of her children.) Attorney Parker pointed out that the holographic document presented by the Petitioner, although styled "Last Will and Testament" did not revoke the former Will. It was also pointed out that the January 8, 1990, Will contained a clause referring to a "handwritten list" which list dictated the distribution of the decedent's personal property.

After researching the law, this Court rules that the January 8, 1990, document prepared by the Hon. Mark Blankenship is the Last Will and Testament of Alice K. Alford, and that the handwritten four-page document, dated January 11, 1994, and signed "Mom" is a codicil to the original Will.

The Court further finds that the signature "Mom" on the codicil, under these circumstances, constitutes a valid signature of the decedent, Alice K. Alford.

Alan Alford, the husband of the decedent, was appointed, in Article V, as the personal representative of the decedent's Will and Carlene Torsak, the daughter of the decedent, was appointed alternate representative. Alan Alford, through his attorney, Mark Blankenship, has filed a notice to decline to serve and therefore, upon Motion, the Court appointed Carlene Torsak, and has sworn her in as Executrix of the Estate of Alice K. Alford. The Court set her bond at $5,000.00 and allowed her sister to sign as surety on same.

The attorneys have advised the Court that the question to be answered is whether the language to the codicil left the house and

Whereas, Carlene Torsak, daughter of the decedent, was appointed alternate Administratrix with Will Annexed of said Estate; and

Whereas, there remains a question as pointed out in the order of July 11, 1996, as to whether a house and 8.2 acres of land in Tennessee was left to Delores Johnson, the daughter of decedent, in fee simple or merely a life estate; and

Whereas, the said Dolores Johnson is represented by the Hon. Trevor Coleman, Alan Alford, the widower of the decedent, is represented by the Hon. Mark Blankenship, and the Administratrix is represented by the Hon. Max W. Parker; and

Whereas, in addition to Delores Johnson, there are six remaining children of the decedent, to-wit, Carlene Torsak, Diane Harrington, Debbie Branham, Robert Grizzard, Pam Dube, and

Whereas, the parties hereto have reached agreement concerning the disposition of the house and acreage in Tennessee belonging to the decedent at the time of her death and of the disposition of the remaining assets of the Alice K. Alford Estate.

In consideration of the mutual promises and benefits, it is hereby agreed among the heirs of Alice K. Alford as follows:

1. The house and acreage in Peagram, Tennessee as described in a deed from William Finch, et al. to Alice Holland (Alice Holland being one and the same of Alice K. Alford, the decedent) will be conveyed by quitclaim deed by the heirs at law of Alice K. Alford, to Bobby C. Johnson, agent of Delores Johnson, one of the heirs and children of the decedent, in exchange for the sum of $38,000.00 paid to the Estate of Alice K. Alford by Delores Johnson. It is understood and agreed that Bobby C. Johnson, the brother-in-law of Delores Johnson, will be the actual grantee of the Deed and purchaser of the property, but is acting on behalf of Delores Johnson in consummating this transaction, and Delores Johnson hereby consents to and stipulates by her signature hereunder that her brother-in-law, Bobby C. Johnson, is in fact acting as her agent herein, and Bobby C. Johnson, by his signature hereon, acknowledges and certifies that he accepts said agency.

In further consideration, Delores Johnson does hereby waive and relinquish to the others heirs any and all of her interest in and to the Estate of her mother, Alice K. Alford, including, but not limited to, all real and personal property and the proceeds from the sale thereof.

2. Alan Alford, the husband of the decedent, Alice K. Alford, in consideration of the premises herein, waives and relinquishes any right he may have to recover from the estate for any obligations of the estate which he may have paid on his own, and further acknowledges that the Estate is not indebted to him. Alan Alford further stipulates that he has waived and does waive his right to inherit under the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and/or Tennessee as the "spouse" of Alice K. Alford, and in exchange thereof, agrees to take a "child's share" of the net proceeds of the Estate of Alice K. Alford, to-wit, the net estate will be divided equally between Carlene Torsak, Diane Harrington, Debbie Branham, Robert Grizzard, Pam Dube, Ruby Jean Stewart, and Alan Alford.

3. All of the heirs of the estate of Alice K. Alford, represented by their signatures below, hereby agree that Delores Johnson, and her agent, Bobby Johnson, shall not be liable nor responsible for any debt or obligation of said estate which arose prior to this agreement or which may arise after this agreement. The parties hereto further agree that this agreement shall act as the full consideration for releasing Delores Johnson, and her agent, Bobby Johnson, from the debts and obligations of this estate of any type whatsoever, and that the proceeds of this agreement shall go toward the paying of said debts or obligations of the estate, if any, with the remainder of the proceeds to be distributed in accordance with paragraph "2" above.

4. Each of the parties hereto, by their signatures hereon, certify that they have had ample opportunity to review and seek legal advice concerning the Estate of Alice K. Alford, that they understand that Max W. Parker, attorney at law, represents the Administratrix of the Estate and not the Estate, nor them personally. Further, Alan Alford acknowledges that he has counsel in this matter, the Hon. Mark Blankenship, and Delores Johnson acknowledges that she has counsel in this matter, the Hon. Trevor Coleman. The parties further certify that they hereby indemnify and hold harmless Carlene Torsak as Administratrix of the Estate from any claim of any nature growing out of or related to the Estate of Alice K. Alford with the exception of those payments, obligations and duties as set forth herein. Further, the parties certify that there exists a "Contract to Purchase" between the Administratrix of the Estate and Bobby C. Johnson, acting on behalf of Delores Johnson, which Contract sets forth the terms of the sale, the price, etc. (a copy of same is attached hereto and made a part hereof), and they do approve, ratify and acknowledge said Contract to Purchase and further agree to sign, together with their spouses, if any, a "Quitclaim Deed" conveying any and all interest they may have in and to the property to Bobby C. Johnson, acting on behalf of Delores Johnson, and that as consideration therefrom, they shall receive a one-seventh (1/7) interest in the net proceeds of the Estate of Alice K. Alford.

The parties further certify that this instrument and accompanying Contract constitute the entire agreement of the parties for settlement of the Estate of Alice K. Alford and that there are no other side agreements and that all agreements are contained herein.
