FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came on to be heard on the 29th day of October, 1997, upon the Complaint for Separate Maintenance of the Wife, Answer and Counter-Complaint for Divorce of the Husband, certain stipulations by the parties, testimony of the parties in open Court, and the entire Record in this cause, from all of which the Court finds as follows:

That upon stipulation of the parties, the Wife is permitted to amend her Complaint to add a request for Divorce upon Inappropriate Marital Conduct, and upon stipulation of the parties a Divorce shall be granted to the Wife upon said ground, and the parties restored to the rights and privileges of unmarried persons.

Further, the Court finds that the parties are the owners of real and personal property subject to division by this Court; and are the holders of certain indebtednesses likewise subject to division; are the parents of one (1) minor child for whom custody, visitation and support must be set; and that the Wife in this cause is entitled to periodic alimony from the Husband. The Court further finds that the Husband, WILLIE V. REID, JR., Social Security Number [redacted]-6346, is entitled to retirement pay from the United States Army Reserve, which retirement is a marital asset subject to division by this Court.

Therefore, upon the stipulations and agreements announced in open Court, the testimony of the parties, and the record,
