LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

EUGENE STANLEY RITTER

BOOK 10833 PG 166

I, EUGENE STANLEY RITTER, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, declare and publish this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills and codicils heretofore made by me, and direct that the following disposition be made of my property:

I.

I request that all my just debts, including my funeral expenses, be paid by my Executor, hereinafter named.

II.

I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Sue Kay Ritter, all of my property, both real and personal, wherever situated.

III.

Should my wife predecease me, then I give, devise and bequeath to my son, John Mark Ritter, all of my property, both real and personal, wherever situated with the exception of any articles of furniture or furnishings that have come to me from my wife, Sue Kay Ritter, and any property that I have received from my wife shall be distributed to the heirs of my wife, Sue Kay Ritter and are specifically excluded from this bequeath to my son, John Mark Ritter.

IV.

In the event that my wife and I are both killed as a result of a common disaster wherein it is impossible to determine which of us survived, in that event it shall be presumed that my wife predeceased me and then my entire estate shall go to my son, John Mark Ritter, with the exception of any articles of furniture or furnishings that have come to me from my wife, Sue Kay Ritter, and any property that I have received from my wife shall be distributed to the heirs of my wife, Sue Kay Ritter and are specifically excluded from this bequeath to my son, John Mark Ritter.

V.

I hereby appoint as the Executor of my estate, my good friend Mac E. Robinson to serve without bond.

VI.

In the event Mac E. Robinson should predecease me, I hereby appoint as Executor of my Last Will and Testament Mac E. Robinson, Jr. to serve without bond.

VII.

Any property that I have not heretofore disposed of, I hereby give, devise and bequeath in the same way and manner as my other property herein disposed of by this Will.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name to this my Last Will and Testament, and declared and published it as such on this the 21st day of July, 1989.
