Will of Connie Cunningham Paine

I Connie Cunningham Paine on this day January 13 1989 make my last will and testament naming Jack Greenfield Paine my son as executor of my estate. To Jack Greenfield Paine my son who has been so good and thoughtful of me I leave my home and contents located at 413 Freda Villa Dr. Madison, Tenn. It is paid for no loan on it. To my son Carl Arthur Cunningham I leave my automobile and any money that is left after my funeral expenses are paid for. Checking acct - Certificate of deposit at First American Natl Bank Madison Branch, Kemper money market acct. To Carla Cunningham my granddaughter I leave my watch and diamond Bracelet, to Connie Cunningham Hayes my granddaughter I leave my diamond earrings and necklace. Divide my personal Clothes and furs if they want them. I have asked Mrs. Webb Russell (Lois) my neighbor for 20 years to Witness this as she knows more about me than anyone else

-- OVER --

I do not owe anything to any one and hope you all will respect my wishes. Have Dottie fix my hair and get me a pretty gown and robe (Prefer beige). Have my marker put on my grave at Spring Hill Cemetary. (Jack do this for me) Please keep in touch with each other.
Until we meet again
