CARRIE WILLARD FAGG

vs. 57542

JAMES ORLIN FAGG

BOOK 11046 PAGE 828
IN THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT

OF

DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

FINAL DECREE

This matter came on to be heard this the 26th day of May, 1970, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill heretofore filed and the pro confesso entered against the defendant, he having failed to answer as required by law, and upon testimony of witnesses appearing in open Court, and argument of counsel, from all of which the Court finds that the complainant has made out her bill as alleged on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The Court further finds that the property owned by the parties including all household furnishings and personal property of whatsoever nature and kind be divested from the defendant and reinvested into the complainant as being part of her alimony. The Court further finds that the complainant is the proper person to have the care, custody and control of the minor children and that the pendente lite order heretofore entered of one-half of whatsoever sums coming into the hands of the defendant should be paid towards the support of said minor children. The Court further finds that the parties are owners of a tract of land in Davidson County, Tennessee described as follows:
