10. 14. Each party represents and warrants that he or she has made a full disclosure to the other of all their assets and liabilities. Each party acknowledges that the failure to disclose any assets or liabilities would be considered a breach of this Agreement and would subject this Agreement to being reopened at a later time by the Court.

19. This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties. There are no representations, warranties or promises other than those expressly set forth herein.

20. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be held invalid by a Court of competent jurisdiction, such individual provision shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement, said provisions to that extent being severable.

21. This Agreement may be altered, amended or cancelled only by instrument in writing signed by each of the parties.

22. Both parties further acknowledge that this Agreement is subject to the approval of the Court in the event a divorce is granted to either party herein. If approved by the Court, then this Agreement will be incorporated into any final decree of divorce which shall be rendered by the Court. However, in the event that no divorce is granted to either party in this matter or the Court fails to approve this Agreement, then this Agreement is of no force and effect.

23. Each party acknowledges that his or her attorney makes no claim to be a tax expert and each party has been advised to seek advice elsewhere as to the tax consequences of the provisions of this Agreement.
