AGREED ORDER OF FORFEITURE

This cause came to be heard upon motion of the State, through the District Attorney General, and the Defendants with their counsel, for entry of this Agreed Order of Forfeiture. The parties have agreed, as evidenced by their signatures below, that the following property and their interests in the same will be forfeited to the State of Tennessee:

> A parcel of property known as Tract No. 6, situated in the Second Civil District of Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, located on the southerly margin of Old Hickory Boulevard west of Whites Creek Pike, described further in a conveyance from Gary B. Thompson to Charels Hicks, et ux., of record in Deed Book 10066, page 573 in the Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee.

The parties further agree that this Court has jurisdiction over this cause, and may sit by interchange for the Circuit Court, that the aforedescribed property is subject to forfeiture pursuant to the provisions of TCA §39-11-703(Supp.1998), that the property is not subject to any deed of trust presently in effect, and that the Defendant Charles Hugh Hicks and Donna Reed Hicks are the sole recorded owners of the property.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the aforesaid property and all interests of the defendants therein are FORFEITED to the STATE OF TENNESSEE, Victor S. Johnson, III, Trustee, subject to the interests of Small Business Administration. This Order shall be recorded with the Register of Deeds.

RECORDERS MEMO
LEGIBILITY OF WRITING, TYPING OR
