No rights of my beneficiary hereunder to income or principal shall be subject to assignment, alienation or anticipation, or liability for any debts or obligations of any beneficiary, or subject to attachment or any other order, decree or process of court on account of or for the purpose of collecting any such debt or obligation.

At such time as my son attains the age of eighteen (18) years, the Trustee shall distribute the entire corpus and undistributed income to him, free of trust, and the trust shall terminate, unless my said son has attained the age of eighteen (18) years at the time of my death, in which event the trust shall not come into being and my entire estate shall be distributed to my son, outright, free of trust, per stirpes.
