This cause came on for hearing November 13, 1972 before Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, Fourth Circuit Court, Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill filed by the complainant, answer and cross-bill filed by the defendant and cross-complainant, answer thereto, testimony of witnesses heard in open Court, statement of counsel and upon the entire record. From all of which the Court finds that the original bill should be dismissed, and that the cross-bill should be sustained, that is, that the cross-defendant, Patrick Thomas Griffin, is guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment towards the cross-complainant, Dawn Dae Thweatt Griffin, as entitles to her an absolute divorce. It further appears to the Court that the parties, through and by counsel, have reached an agreement in the event of divorce, whereby the cross-complainant would receive the home-place of the parties, together with the furniture therein, custody of the minor children, attorney's fee in the amount of $250.00, and the cross-defendant will pay all the outstanding bills, maintain hospital insurance for the children and make the children irrevocable beneficiaries of his insurance, and thus, submitting the matter to the Court on an uncontested basis as to divorce, alimony and child support, it is therefore ORDERED AND DECREED by the Court that the original bill be and the same is hereby dismissed.

It is further ORDERED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be and the same are hereby dissolved, and the cross-complainant, Dawn Dae Thweatt Griffin, is awarded an absolute divorce from the cross-defendant, Patrick Thomas Griffin, and she is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED AND DECREED that the custody of the minor children be and they are hereby awarded to the cross-complainant with reasonable rights of visitation awarded to the cross-defendant, and for the support, care and maintenance of the minor children, the cross-defendant will pay direct to the cross-complainant $112.50 each month, the first such payment being made on or before 4:00 P.M., November 30, 1972, which shall be the payment for the month of November, 1972, and he will pay a like amount thereafter bimonthly in the amount of $56.25 on each pay day as child support.

It is further ORDERED AND DECREED by the Court that as alimony to the cross-complainant, all the right, title and interest that the cross-defendant has in and to the homeplace, together with the furniture therein located at 315 Goldie Drive, Goodlettsville, Tennessee, be and the same is hereby divested out of him and reinvested in her, subject to the mortgage thereon, and the cross-defendant will execute all necessary documents to accomplish this portion of the decree, and in addition thereto, the cross-defendant will pay direct to the cross-complainant the sum of $112.50 per month as alimony, payable in two equal installments in the amount of $56.25 on each pay day as alimony in futuro, the first payment due in December 1972. In addition, the cross-defendant, will pay and hold the cross-complainant free of all the debts of the parties as of the date of this hearing, including First American National Bank, Appliance Buyers, K-Mart, Zayre's, Mastercharge, Bankamericard, Don Badacour Shell, Atlantic Richfield, J. C. Penney Company, American Oil Company, any past due house notes and utility bills as of the date of this hearing, and the cross-defendant will pay to Earl A. McNabb, attorney for cross-complainant, an attorneys fee in the amount of $250.00, and the cross-defendant will maintain in full force and effect the hospitalization insurance and medical insurance on the children of the parties and he will make the children irrevocable beneficiaries of his insurance policy, and he will maintain the same in full force and effect with him paying the premiums thereon.

The cross-defendant will pay the costs of this cause for all of which let execution issue, if necessary.
