LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

LOUISE GLOVER MOORE

I, Louise Glover Moore, a citizen and resident of Old Hickory, Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament. I revoke all former wills and codicils at any time heretofore executed by me.

ITEM I

My Executor shall pay out of my residuary estate, and not apportion against the share of any beneficiary, all fees and expenses incident to the administration of my estate and all inheritance, succession, and estate taxes assessed against my estate [excluding any tax imposed under Section 2601 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (the "Code"), or under Tennessee law, on any generation-skipping transfer], including any such taxes as may be so assessed on account of policies of insurance on my life, jointly held property, or other property taxable as a part of my estate, but not coming into the hands of my Executor.

ITEM II

If at the time of my death I have left a handwritten memorandum as to the distribution of all my personal effects, I request that my Executor abide by the list in distributing such items of personalty. Should such memorandum not dispose of all my personal effects, I direct that any personalty not so listed shall become a part of my residuary estate.

ITEM III

I give, devise, and bequeath the entire residue of my estate, including property of every kind and character, real, personal, or mixed, and wheresoever the same may be situated, which I may own or have an interest in at the time of my death, including the proceeds of any policies of insurance on my life which may be payable to my Executor, my Administrator, or my estate, to my four children, Mildred Moore Rankin, Billy Dorris Moore, James Eugene Moore and Jerry LeRoy Moore, in equal shares.

Should any of my said children predecease me, I direct that the share to which he is entitled shall be divided equally among his issue.

Should any of my said children predecease me without issue surviving, I direct that his share be divided equally among those of my children who survive me with a share per stirpes for the issue of any child who may then be deceased.

ITEM IV

I nominate, constitute, and appoint my son, James Eugene Moore, as Executor of my will and excuse him from giving any bond for the faithful performance of his duties. Should my named Executor predecease me, or should he for any reason be unwilling or unable to serve at any time as Executor, I direct that my son, Billy Dorris Moore, serve as Executor, also without bond.

Without diminution or restriction of the powers vested by law or elsewhere in my will, and subject to all of the provisions of my will, my Executor, without the necessity of procuring any judicial authorization therefor or approval thereof, shall be vested with and, in the application of his best judgment and discretion on behalf of the beneficiaries of this instrument, shall be authorized to exercise all or any of the powers specifically enumerated in Section 35-618 Tennessee Code Annotated. These powers (as set out in said statute on the date of the execution of this will) are granted, notwithstanding that said statute may be amended hereafter or repealed at the time of my death.

My Executor shall, in his sole discretion, make reasonable allocations of the property comprising my estate in satisfaction of any devise or bequest contained herein or in the allocation of the residue of my estate in fractional shares as hereinbefore directed.

In addition to all other powers, and notwithstanding any other provision of my will, my Executor shall have full discretion to apply the deductions allowable for claims, expenses, indebtedness, taxes, and losses, as contemplated by Sections 642, 2053, and 2054 of the Code, as the same now exist or may hereafter be amended, to either income tax or estate tax in such manner as to minimize the total state and federal income and death taxes payable by my estate or as a result of my death. Such allocation may be made regardless of whether its effect is to favor one beneficiary or class of beneficiaries over another or whether such charges shall be charged to income or principal for distribution purposes.

Throughout this will the masculine gender shall be deemed to include the feminine, and vice versa, and the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa.

Whenever the words "child," "children," "grandchildren," "issue," or words of similar import are used in my will, they are intended to include adopted as well as natural born children and grandchildren.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this my will, consisting of four (4) pages, each of which bears my original signature, at Nashville, Tennessee, this 15th day of October, 1981. PB

Louise Glover Moore
