At no time, however, no matter if, or how many, additional phases are developed, shall a Unit be allocated less than a one- fifth (1/ 5) interest, or more than a one- fifth (1/ 5) interest, in the Common Elements. Furthermore, no change in the percentage of ownership shall be effected more than seven (7) years from the filing of this Master Deed. Said ownership interest in the Common Elements shall be an undivided interest, and the Common Elements shall be owned by the Unit Owners as tenants in common in accordance with their respective percentages of Ownership. The ownership of each Unit shall not be conveyed separate from the percentage of ownership in the Common Elements corresponding to said Unit. 8. Use of the Common Elements. Except as hereinafter set forth (particularly in Section 9), each Unit Owner shall have the right to use the Common Elements, except the Limited Common Elements and portions of the Property subject to leases made by or assigned to the Board, in common with all other Unit Owners, as may be required for permitted recreational uses and for the purposes of access, ingress to, egress from, use, occupancy and enjoyment of the respective Unit owned by such Unit Owner. However, each Unit Owner shall have the right to the exclusive use and possession of the Limited Common Elements contiguous to and serving such Unit alone or with adjoining Units. Each Unit Owner shall have an unrestricted right of ingress and egress to his or her Unit. Such rights to use the Common Elements, including the Limited Common Elements, shall be subject to and governed by the provision of the Act, Master Deed, Bylaws and any rules and regulations established by the Association. Parking spaces within the Parcel shall be part of the Common Elements as provided herein, and may be allocated with exclusive use thereof assigned by the Developer, or the Board, to the respective Unit Owners, and shall be used by such Unit Owners in such manner and subject to such rules and regulations as the Board may prescribe.

10. (a) Common Expenses. Each Unit Owner, and the Developer, shall pay his or her proportionate share of the expenses of the administration and operation of the Common Elements and of any other expenses incurred in conformance with the Master Deed and Bylaws (which expenses are herein sometimes referred to as "common expenses"), including, but not limited to, the maintenance and repair thereof and any and all replacements and additions thereto. Such proportionate share of the common expenses for such Unit Owner shall be in accordance with such Owner's percentage of ownership in the Common Elements. Payment of common expenses, including any prepayment thereof required by any contract for a sale of a Unit, Shall be in such amounts and at such times as determined in the manner provided in the Bylaws. No Unit Owner shall be exempt from payment of such Owner's proportionate share of the common expenses by waiver or non-use of enjoyment of the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements, or by abandonment of such Owner's Unit. If any Unit Owner shall fail or refuse to make any such payment of the common expenses when due, the amount thereof, together with interest thereon at the rate of ___(Ten)____percent (_10___%) per annum, after said common expenses become due and payable, shall constitute a lien on the interest of such Unit Owner in the Property as provided in the Act. Each assessment for common expenses against a Unit shall be the personal obligation of the Owner of the Unit at the time the assessment is due. A successor in title to a Unit shall not be personally obligated to pay any unpaid assessments for common expenses that have be levied against a Unit unless such successor in title expressly assumes the payment of the same, Provided, however, any lien encumbering a Unit as above described shall not be affected by transfer of a Unit.

(b) Enforcement. In the event any Unit Owner fails to maintain such Owner's Unit, or the Limited Common Elements attributable to such Unit, or in the event any Unit Owner fails to pay such Owner's proportionate share of any common expense when such is due, then in any such event the Board may after ten (10) days' notice to the defaulting Unit Owner, have the Association perform such maintenance, advance and pay such sums, or do any other reasonable act necessary to cure such default. The Association shall have a lien against the Unit of the defaulting Unit Owner securing payment of the sums expended of advanced, and shall be entitled to enforce such lien by filing suit in a court of competent jurisdiction. In the event the Association is successful in such suit, it shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in such suit and enforcement of its rights.

(c) Deed of Trust Protection. The lien for common expenses payable by a Unit Owner shall be subordinate to the lien of a recorded deed of trust on the interest of such Unit Owner, except for the amount of the proportionate share of common expenses that takes possession of the Unit encumbered thereby, accepts a conveyance of any interest therein (other than as security) or forecloses on its deed of trust, and except for pro rata or assessments. Any deed of trust beneficiary that takes possession of a Unit in any manner described just above shall be exempt from any right of first refusal. This Subsection (c) shall not be amended, changed, modified or rescinded without the proper written consent of all deed of trust beneficiaries of record.

(d) Special Assessments. In addition to the annual assessments for common expenses authorized above, the Association may levy a special assessment for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of any construction, reconstruction, repair or replacement of capital improvements upon or as part of the Common Elements including fixtures and personal property related thereto, provided that any such assessment shall have the assent of _Two-Thirds____ (_2__/_3_) of the votes of Unit Owners.

11. Deeds of Trust. Each Unit Owner shall have the right, subject to the provisions herein, to make separate deeds of trust for such Owner's respective Unit together with such Owner's respective ownership interest in the Common Elements. No Unit Owner shall have the right or authority to make or create, or cause to be made or created, from the date hereof, any deed of trust or other lien on or affecting the Property or any part thereof, except only to the extent of such Owner's Unit and the respective percentage interest in the Common Elements corresponding thereto.

12. Separate Real Estate Taxes. Real estate taxes shall be separately taxed to each Unit Owner for such Owner's Unit and his corresponding percentage of ownership in the Common Elements, as provided in the Act. In the event that such taxes for any year are not separately taxed to each Unit Owner, but rather are taxed on the Property as a whole, the each Unit Owner shall pay such Owner's proportionate share thereof in accordance with such Owner's respective percentage of ownership interest in the Common Elements, and, in said event, such taxes shall be a common expense.

13. Insurance and Damage. The Board shall have the authority to and shall obtain insurance for the Property and Common Elements, exclusive of the additions within, improvements to and decorating of the Units by the Unit Owners, against loss or damage by fire, vandalism, malicious mischief and such other hazards as are covered under standard extended coverage provisions for the full insurable replacement cost of the Common Elements and the Buildings, and against such other hazards and for such amounts as the Board may deem advisable. Such insurance shall, if possible, include all or any portion of all Limited Common Elements. Insurable replacement cost shall be deemed to be the cost of restoring the Common Elements, Units or any part thereof to substantially the same condition in which they existed prior to damage or destruction. Such insurance coverage shall be written in the name of, and the proceeds thereof shall be payable to, the Board of the Association, as the trustee for each of the Unit Owners in direct ratio to said Unit Owner's respective percentage of ownership in the Common Elements, as set forth in the Master Deed, and for the holders of deeds of trust on his Unit, if any. The policy of insurance should also contain, if possible, a waiver of subrogation rights by the insurer against individual Unit Owners. The premiums for such insurance shall be a common expense. However, at the option of the Boards, and upon written notice to all Unit Owners, premiums for such insurance shall be separately billed to each Unit Owner for such Owner's Unit and such Owner's corresponding percentage of ownership in the Common Elements.

In the event of damage to or destruction of any Building or Common elements as a result of fire or other casualty covered by insurance proceeds, unless more than two-thirds (2/3) of the Buildings require reconstruction, the Board shall, in its discretion, with the prior written approval of all of the first lien deed of trust beneficiaries of the Units affected, determine and, without intervention of any Unit Owner, arrange for the prompt repair and restoration of the damaged portions of all Units, Buildings and Common Elements substantially in accordance with the original plans and specifications therefore. Where the insurance indemnity is insufficient to cover the cost of such repairs and restoration, the deficit shall be paid by all Unit Owners directly affected by the damage, in proportion to each Unit's percentage of ownership in the Common Elements. The Board shall not be responsible for the repair, replacement or restoration of an wall, ceiling or floor decorations or covering, or furniture, furnishings, fixtures, appliances or equipment installed in the Unit by a Unit Owner or Occupant unless insurance therefore is specifically provided for in the insurance policy obtained by the Board.

Reconstruction shall not be compulsory where the whole or more than two-thirds (2/3) of all the Buildings are destroyed or damaged by fire or other casualty as determined by the Board. In such case, and unless otherwise unanimously agreed upon by the Unit Owners and their deed of trust beneficiaries, the insurance proceeds shall be delivered to the Unit Owners, or their deed of trust beneficiaries, as their interests may appear, in proportion to the respective interests of the Unit Owners, as computed by dividing the square footage of each Unit by the total square footage of all Units taken together; and the Board, as soon as reasonable possible and as agent for the Unit Owners, shall sell the Property, in its then condition, free from the effect of this Master Deed which shall terminate upon such sale, on terms satisfactory to the Board, and the net proceeds of such sale and the net proceeds of all insurance policies shall thereupon be distributed to the Unit Owners or their deed of trust beneficiaries, as their interests may appear, in proportion to the percentage interest of each Unit Owner in the Common Elements. If the Board fails to consummate a sale pursuant to this paragraph within twenty-four (24) months after the destruction or damage occurs, then the Managing Agent or the Board, shall, or if they do not, any Unit Owner or deed of trust beneficiary may, record a sworn declaration setting forth such decision and reciting that under the provisions of this Master Deed, the prohibition against judicial partition provided for in this Master Deed has terminated and that judicial partition of the Property may be obtained pursuant to the laws of the State of Tennessee. Upon final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction decreeing such partition, this horizontal property regime shall terminate.

The Board shall also have authority to and shall obtain comprehensive public liability insurance, in such amounts as it deems desirable, and workers' compensation insurance and other liability insurance as it deems desirable, insuring each Unit Owner, deed of trust beneficiaries of record, if any, the Association, its officers, directors, Board and employees, the Developer, and the Managing Agent, if any, from liability in connection with the Common Elements. The premiums for such insurance shall be a common expense. However, at the option of the Board, and upon written notice to all Unit Owners, premiums or such insurance shall be separately billed to each Unit Owner for such Owner's corresponding percentage of ownership in the Common Elements. The Board shall retain in safe keeping any such public liability policy for six (6) years after the expiration date of the policy.

The Board shall also have authority to and may obtain such insurance as it deems desirable, in such amounts, from such sources and in such forms as it deems desirable, insuring the Property and each member of the Board and officers of the Association, and members of any committee appointed pursuant to the Bylaws of the Association from liability arising from the fact that said person is or was director or officer of the Association, or a member of such a committee.

Each Unit Owner shall be responsible for obtaining his own insurance on the contents of such Owner's Unit, as well as additions and improvements thereto, decorations furnishings and personal property therein, and personal property stored elsewhere on the Property. In addition, in the event a Unit Owner desires to insure against such Owner's personal liability and loss or damage by fire or other hazards above and beyond the extent that such Owner's liability, loss or damage is covered by the liability insurance and insurance against loss or damage by fire and such other hazards obtained by the Board for all of the Unit Owners as part of the common expenses, as above provided, said Unit Owner may, at such Owner's option and expense, obtain additional insurance.

14. Maintenance, Repairs and Replacements. Each Unit Owner, at such Owner's expense, shall furnish and be responsible for all maintenance or, repairs to, and replacements within such Owner's Unit; provided, however, the Board may choose to provide such maintenance and repairs as part of the common expense. Maintenance of, repairs to and replacements within the Common Elements shall be the responsibility of, and shall be furnished by, the Association. The cost of maintenance of, repairs to and replacements within the Common Elements shall be part of the common expenses, subject to the Bylaws, rules and regulations of the Association. To the extent not covered by the Association's insurance, the expenses for the maintenance, repair or replacement of Limited Common Elements shall be borne by the Owner of the Unit to which such Limited Common Elements are appurtenant and at the discretion of the Board, maintenance of, repairs to and replacements within the other Limited Common Elements may be assessed in whole or in part to Unit Owners benefited thereby, and, further, at the discretion of the Board, the Board may direct Unit Owners who stand to be benefited by such maintenance of, repairs to and replacement within the Limited Common Elements to arrange for such maintenance, repairs and replacement in the name and for the account of such benefited Unit Owners, pay the cost thereof with their own funds, and procure and deliver to the Board such lien waivers and contractors' and subcontractors' sworn statements as may be required to protect the Property from all mechanics' or material men's lien claims that may arise there from.

If, due to the act of neglect of a Unit Owner, or the agent, servant, tenant, family member, invitee, licensee or household pet thereof, damage shall be caused to the Common Elements or to a Unit or Units owned by others, or maintenance, repair or replacement are required which would otherwise be a common expense, then such Unit Owner shall pay for such damage or such maintenance, repair and replacements, as may be determined by the Association, to the extent not covered by the Association's insurance or sufficient proceeds are not collected from the insurance carrier.

The authorized representative of the Association, Board or of the Managing Agent with approval of the Board shall be entitled to reasonable access to the individual Units and Limited Common Elements as may be required in connection with the preservation of any individual Unit or Limited Common Elements in the event of an emergency, or in connection with maintenance of, repairs or replacements within the Common Elements, Limited Common Elements or any equipment, facilities or fixtures affecting or serving the other Units, Common Elements and Limited Common Elements or to make any alteration required by any governmental authority.

15. Alterations, Additions or improvements. Except as provided in Sections 16 and 19 below, no alteration of any Common Elements, or any additions or improvements thereto, shall be made by any Unit Owner without the prior written approval of the Board. The Board may authorize and charge as common expenses alterations, additions and improvements of the Common Elements as provided in the Bylaws. Any Unit Owner may make alterations, additions or improvements within the Unit of the Unit Owner without the prior written approval of the Board, but such Unit Owner shall be responsible for any damage to other Units, the Common Elements, the Property, or any part thereof, resulting from such alterations, additions or improvements.

16. Decorating. Each Unit Owner, at such Owner's expense, shall furnish and be responsible for all decorating within such Owner's Unit and Limited Common Elements serving, such Unit as may be required form time to time, including painting, wallpapering, washing, cleaning , paneling, floor covering, draperies, window shades, curtains, lighting and other furnishings and decorating. Each Unit Owner shall be entitled to the exclusive use of the interior surfaces of the perimeter walls, floor and ceilings of his Unit, and such Unit Owner shall maintain said interior surfaces in good condition at such Owner's sole expense, as may be required from time to time. Said maintenance and use of interior surfaces shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the Association, but each such Unit Owner shall have the right to decorate such interior surfaces from time to time as such Owner may see fit and at such Owner's sole expense. Decorating of the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements (other than interior surfaces within the Units as above provided) and any redecorating of Units, to the extent such redecorating of Units is made necessary by damage to Units caused by maintenance, repair or replacement of the Common Elements by the Association, shall be furnished by the Association as part of the common expenses.

17. Encroachments and Easements. If any portions of the Common Elements shall actually encroach upon any Unit, or if any Unit shall actually encroach upon any portions of the Common Elements shall actually encroach upon any Unit, or if any Unit shall actually encroach upon any portions of the Common Elements, or if any Unit shall actually encroach upon another Unit, as the Common Elements and Units are shown by the Plat, there shall be deemed to be mutual easements in favor of the owners of the Common Elements and the respective Unit Owners involved, to the extent of such encroachments, so long as the same shall exist.

The Association shall have the right to grant permits, licenses and easements over the Common Elements for utilities, roads and other purposes reasonably necessary or useful for the proper maintenance or operation of the horizontal property regime.

In order to close and consummate the purchase or lease of a Unit, or interest therein, by the Association. However, no such financing arrangement may be secured by an encumbrance on any interest in the Property other than the Unit, or interest therein, to be purchased or leased, and the percentage interest in the Common Elements appurtenant thereto.

19. Use and Occupancy Restrictions. Subject to the provisions of the Bylaws, no part of the Property may be used for purposes other than housing and the related common purposes for which the Property was designed and as allowed by applicable zoning laws. Each Unit or any two or more adjoining Units used together shall be used as a residence or for such other use permitted by this Master Deed, and for no other purpose, except that professional and quasi-professional people may use their residence as a office or both (as permitted by zoning laws) as an ancillary or secondary facility to an office established elsewhere.
