LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

SELMA L. MC COOL

I, SELMA L. MC COOL, of 104 Roanoke Drive, Goodlettsville, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, declare and publish this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

I

I direct that all my just debts, including my funeral expenses, and the costs of administration, be paid out of my general estate by my executrix hereinafter named, as soon as practicable after my death.

II

I declare that I am a widow; I have two living children, to-wit: Patricia McCool Hackett and Morris D. McCool, Jr.

III

After payment of my just debts, including my funeral expenses and the costs of administration, all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, of every nature and wheresoever situated, of which I may die seized and possessed, or to which I may be entitled, or of which I may have the power of testamentary disposition, control or appointment, I give, devise and bequeath to my two children, Patricia McCool Hackett and Morris D. McCool, Jr., equally, the issue of a deceased child representing and taking the deceased child's share per stirpes.

It is my desire that my said children sell my realty as soon as convenient after my death, and I specifically request that my son, Morris D. McCool, Jr., to reinvest his share of the proceeds in another home for himself in the hope that he will be disposed to conserve and manage his assets

IV

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my daughter, Patricia McCool Hackett, Executrix of this, my Last Will and Testament, and hereby excuse and exonerate her from giving bond or other security for the faithful discharge of her duties as such. In any case in which my executrix is required to divide any portion of my personal estate into parts or shares to distribute the same, I authorize her, in her discretion, to make such division or distribution in kind or partly in kind or partly in money and for the purpose of such allotment, the judgment of my executrix concerning the property and the relative value thereof for purpose of distribution of the assets so allotted shall be binding and conclusive on all persons interested in my estate.

This, my Last Will and Testament, is typewritten on three pages, including the attestation clause and signatures of witnesses, and is identified by my signature on each page.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, SELMA L. MC COOL, have hereunto set my hand to this, my Last Will and Testament, and declare and publish it as such in the presence of witnesses at Nashville, Tennessee, this 11 day of January, 1969.

Selma L. McCool

SELMA L. MC COOL

We, the undersigned witnesses, do hereby state that the above and foregoing will was signed, published and declared by the testatrix, Selma L. McCool, to be her Last Will and Testament in the presence of all of us at one and the same time, and we, at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses, and we do hereby attest to the sound and disposing mind of said testatrix and to the performance of aforesaid acts of execution and publication at the place and on the date hereinabove stated.
