I, W.Howard Fish, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this as my last will and testament.

1st. I desire that all my just debts be paid.

2nd. Because of the love and affection that I bear toward my wife, Sarah Hassell Fish, I devise and bequeath to her my entire estate of any kind whatseoever after debts are paid. I do this in order that she may not be hampered in the management and use of what estate I have to the best advantage. I have the utmost faith in her sense of fairness and justice, and request that she provide by will that all the children shall share equally in whatever estate she may leave. Unless she does so provide Winston and Marion (children by my first wife) would be entirely barred from any of the estate and it is my desire, and I am sure hers, that they all share equally in any estate left by us.

3rd. I desire that she shall be the executor of this, my will and testament, and that she be relieved of making any bond or filing any inventory in any court.

4th. This will shall revoke any previous will or supposed will that may be produced.

W. Howard Fish

We, the undersigned, have at the request of and in the presence of the testator, and in the presence of each other, signed our names to this as and for his last will and testament.
