RICHARD R. ROOKER, CLERK
D.C.

To my adopted Children Richard Lee Brown and Meriam Jean Brown ~~Brown~~.

Since you are responsible adults I want you to work together peacefully on settling the estate after my death. There will not be enough to argue over or have any ill feelings toward each other as I plan to enjoy what I have. Worldly goods are not worth loosing love and respect for one another

All my real estate and personal belongings shall be divided as evenly as possible between Richard and Meriam. Property at 5009 Marchant Dr. Nashville, Tn. 37211 ~~and land in Hartsprings Village~~. I do have a living trust packet so there should be no problems.

On some pieces of furniture the name of one to receive is written on bottom or back. If you wish to make some happy exchanges that will meet with my approval.

The antique secretary in living room is to go to Meriam, also the bedroom suite in guest room (purchased in 1938) To Meriana goes the diamond ring I received from Mrs. Bonnell, also the bloodstone ring which was my Mother's engagement ring and my diamond engagement ring & wedding band, also the watch & chain which was my Mothers.

The Victrola is to go to Merian which is to be handed down to girls in the family. If she does not have a daughter it will go to Amy when Meriana is finished with it.

To Richard the master bed room suite which your father purchased around 1934. The ruby and diamond ring and garnett ring.

The J.C. Penney stock has Meriams name on but is to be divided evenly between Richard & Meriam, the same with checking & savings accounts at Educators Credit Union, the annuity at N.A.P. Institutional Marketing (Keyport Life Keyannuity Plus)

There are some lots at Woodlawn Cemetary in name of Elmo W. Brown to be used as you wish.

Make sure my beloved Grandchildren Christian Minard and Amy Brown are remembered with $1,000 each and anything they choose in the house. Perhaps Amy would like to share the dolls with Richard, Meriam and Chris if they so desire.

The China cabinet goes to Richard, this was a gift to me when my brother, Earl, was in the Merchant Marines sometime in early 1940's. The good china goes to Richard, purchased 1948. The crystal sherbets & goblets to Meriam, ~~Richard~~ purchased in 1938. (MCB)

I love you all and my prayer is that you have accepted the Lord as your personal Savior and find a Church home. I will see you, along with your father when our life on earth has ended and we meet with the Lord.

I am perfectly happy and want happiness for you, my wonderful children who I did not carry under my heart but love you in my heart. The Lord loves you and I have always loved you.

With All My Love
Your Mother
