of all property of whatever nature that I may have the power to dispose of a Testamentary Disposition at the time of my death.

ARTICLE V.

I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my Trustee hereinafter named, an amount equal to the reduction amount as described below in trust to hold manage and invest the same to collect the income thereof and to pay or apply the net income thereof to or for the benefit of my husband in quarterly or other convenient installments but at least annually, for and during his lifetime. In addition, my Trustee may at any time or from time to time, pay or apply to or for the benefit of my husband so much or all of the principal of this trust as my Trustee, in his/her sole discretion, deems necessary or desirable for the support, maintenance, health, comfort or general welfare of my husband. Upon the death of my husband, this trust shall terminate and the trust shall terminate and my Trustee shall pay the assets of this trust, 25% percent to DAVID CHARLES MORLEY, 25% percent PAULA ANN NAMIE and 50% to THERESA CAROL WATSON per stirpes and not per capita. The devise in trust to my Trustee shall be an amount equal to the reduction amount said reduction being that amount to increase my federal taxable estate to the largest amount which will result in no federal estate tax being payable to my estate, after taking into account all credits allowable in computing such taxes and property passing outside of this Will which is includable in my gross estate and does not qualify for the marital or charitable deduction; provided, however, that no such credit other then the federal unified credit shall be taken into account to the extent that the use thereof would increase any estate tax payable by my estate. This bequest shall be deemed a bequest of a dollar amount and shall not participate in any increases or decreases during the administration of my estate.

ARTICLE VI.

I give all of my real property used by me as place of residence together with my improvements located thereon and the appurtenances thereto and all of my interest in the policies of

ARTICLE VII.

I hereby give, bequeath and devise in fee, to my beloved husband WILLIAM JARMAN MORLEY an amount equal to my residuary estate reduced by the Reduction Amount. As used in this Article, the term "Reduction Amount" shall mean that amount needed to increase my federal estate tax to the largest amount which will result in no federal estate tax being payable by my estate, after taking into account all credits, allowable in computing such tax and after taking into account the property passing outside of this Will which is includable in my gross estate and does not qualify for the marital or charitable deduction; provided, however, that no such credit other than the federal unified credit shall be taken into account to the extent that the use thereof would increase any state estate tax payable by my estate.

The Reduction Amount shall not pass under this Article but instead shall pass under, and be governed by, the provision of Article V. In determining the amount of any such reduction, the values finally determined in the federal estate tax proceeding relating to my estate shall control, and there shall be taken into account all property passing (or which shall have passed) to or for the benefit of my wife under this Will or otherwise; however, if my wife shall renounce any portion of my estate, the Reduction Amount shall be computed as if such renunciation had not taken place, even if my estate shall thereby become liable for a federal estate tax.

There shall not be included in this marital bequest any asset or the proceeds of any asset (1) which does not qualify for the marital deduction for federal estate tax purposes, or (2) with respect to which any estate or death taxes are paid to any foreign country or any of its possession or subdivisions, except to the extent that assets of my estate other than those herein described are not sufficient, in which event all or part of the assets or the proceeds of the assets subject to such foreign tax shall be used to satisfy this bequest.

The Executor shall have full power and the sole discretion to satisfy this bequest wholly or partly in cash or in kind and to select the assets which shall constitute this bequest; provided, however, that all property so selected shall be valued at the value thereof as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes; and provided further, that the Executor, in order to implement this bequest, shall distribute to my husband assets, including cash, having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution amounting to no less than the amount of this bequest as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes. The exercise of the foregoing powers and discretion by the Executor shall not be subject to question by or on behalf of any beneficiary under this Will regardless of its effect upon the interest of such beneficiary.

ARTICLE VIII.

In the event that my beloved husband, WILLIAM JARMAN MORLEY should predecease me or he should not survive me until thirty (30) days after my death then, in any of those events, I give, devise and bequeath all the rest and residue of my estate which I may own at the time of my death, real, personal and mixed, tangible and intangible, or whatsoever nature, and wheresoever situated, including all property which I may acquire or become entitled to after the execution of this Will, including all lapsed legacies and devises or other gifts made by this Will, which fail for any reason, to the following individuals in the following shares per stirpes and not per capita: THERESA CAROL WATSON, fifty percent (50%) and PAULA ANN NAMIE, fifty percent (50%).
