LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

SUZANNE WORLEY

2002 PC 2266

I, SUZANNE WORLEY, being of sound mind and disposing memory but realizing the uncertainties of life and wishing to put my estate in order in the event of my death do hereby make, publish and declare this as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills and Codicils to Wills made by me. At the time of the execution of this Will, I am a single person, and I am the parent of two adult children, Lauren Kay Worley Rice and Thomas Gaines Worley.

ARTICLE ONE

I direct that all of my just debts, my funeral expenses (including the cost of a suitable monument at my grave) and the costs of administration of my estate be paid as soon as practicable after my death. I direct that my Co-Executors pay all federal and state inheritance, estate, succession, transfer or other death taxes which may be assessed against my estate or against any beneficiary (including any estate or inheritance tax assessed on account of any life insurance proceeds or other property which shall be included in my estate for the purposes of such taxes, but whether or not included in my estate for probate purposes) out of my gross estate. My Co-Executors, in their sole discretion, may pay from my domiciliary estate all or any portion of the costs of ancillary administration and similar proceedings in other jurisdictions.

ARTICLE TWO

I appoint my brother, Mark Goring, and my friend, Cheryl DeBusk, to be the Co-Executors of this my Last Will and Testament and direct that no bond shall be required for the faithful performance of their duties. If either of these Co-Executors shall predecease me or for any reason shall fail to qualify as personal representative hereunder (or having qualified, shall die or resign) then in such event, the survivor shall serve in such capacity as my personal representative without bond or other surety. In the event that Mark Goring and Cheryl DeBusk shall both predecease me or for any reason shall fail to qualify as personal representative (or having qualified, shall die or resign) then in such event, I appoint Donna Brown to serve in such capacity as Executrix without bond or other surety. I vest my Co-Executors or substitute personal representative with full power and authority to sell, transfer and convey all property, real or personal, which I may own at the time of my death at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as they may determine and to do every other act and thing necessary or appropriate for the complete administration of my estate. To the extent permitted by law, I waive the filing of an inventory and an accounting by my Co-Executors, including the substitute personal representative.

ARTICLE THREE

I authorize my Co-Executors (or any substitute personal representative) in the exercise of reasonable discretion with respect to all property, both real and personal, at any time forming a part of my estate, to exercise any and all of the powers set forth in T.C.A. Section 35-50-110, to the extent applicable, all of which provisions and powers are incorporated herein by reference as fully as if copied verbatim. These powers (as set out in said statute on the date of the execution of this will) are granted, notwithstanding that said statute may be amended hereafter or repealed at the time of my death.

ARTICLE FOUR

I make the following specific bequests:

1) I leave to my brother, Mark Miller Goring, the following item of property, the artifact described as a "fossilized shark tooth whirl".

2) I have a bank account in the name of Suzanne Worley or Travis Worley Rice. It is my intention that Travis Worley Rice take any balance in this account, or any other account in which we are both listed as owners, as survivor. To the extent that he does not take as survivor, then I leave to my grandson, Travis Worley Rice, any and all bank accounts on which we are both listed as owners. Any accounts so created between me and my grandson, Travis Worley Rice, are not subject to the provisions of Article Five, as set forth below.

ARTICLE FIVE

If, at the time of my death, I own any joint accounts with any beneficiary of my estate, and said beneficiary takes the proceeds of that account as a survivor, then that beneficiary's share of my estate shall be reduced by the amount which he or she takes by survivorship interest in the account.

ARTICLE SIX

I desire that the Co-Executors, or any substitute personal representative, take possession of any real estate that I may own at the time of my death and treat such real estate as personal property. As such, the Co-Executors, or any substitute personal representative, at their sole discretion shall pay the housenote and any expenses and maintenance on said property until sold. I authorize the Co-Executors, or any substitute personal representative, to take possession of said real property for the purpose of selling this real property as soon as possible at their sole discretion and without court approval. The proceeds of the sale of said property, after payment of the secured indebtedness and the cost of sale, including any necessary repairs to facilitate the sale, are to be divided as follows: 1) The first Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) is to be given to my brother, Mark Miller Goring; and 2) Any balance after payment of said Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) is to become part of my residual estate.

ARTICLE SEVEN

I give, devise and bequeath the remainder of my estate, whether the same be real, personal or mixed, as follows:

1) If my two children, Lauren Kay Worley Rice and Thomas Gaines Worley, survive me, then the remainder of my estate is to be divided equally between my two children;

2) If my two children, Lauren Kay Worley Rice and Thomas Gaines Worley, both predecease me, then the remainder of my estate is to be divided between their issue, per stirpes;

3) If my daughter, Lauren Kay Worley Rice, predeceases me, leaving issue, then the remainder of my estate is to be divided seventy-five percent (75%) to my son, Thomas Gaines Worley. and twenty-five percent (25%) to my daughter's issue, per stirpes;

4) If my son, Thomas Gaines Worley, predeceases me, leaving issue, then the remainder of my estate is to be divided seventy-five percent (75%) to my daughter, Lauren Kay Worley Rice, and twenty-five percent (25%) to my son's issue, per stirpes;

5) If either of my children predecease me without issue, then the remainder of my estate is left to the survivor; or

6) In the event that I am not survived by issue, then the remainder of my estate is left to my brother, Mark Miller Goring.

ARTICLE EIGHT

It is my express wish and desire that this document be recognized as my Last Will and Testament. It is further my express wish and desire that, should any person contest this Will in a court of law, that person shall forfeit any and all bequests contained herein for such person and, in addition, they shall likewise forfeit any and all interest to which they may be entitled pursuant to the laws of descent and distribution.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, SUZANNE WORLEY, have subscribed my name to this, My Last Will and Testament, consisting of the four typewritten pages each of which bears my signature, this 7th day of June 2001.

SUZANNE WORLEY

The foregoing instrument, consisting of this and three preceding typewritten pages, was signed, published and declared by SUZANNE WORLEY to be her Last Will and Testament, in our presence, and we, at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other, have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses this the 7 day of June 2001, at Nashville, Tennessee.
