TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

MY WILL AND LAST TESTIMONY

This is to state , that I, Katherine Polk do hereby state, being of sound mind and in goood health that at my death, everything will be left to my hunsband, John Henry Polk.

All of my worthy possesions, including bank account, furniture, home and anything else that I may accumilate in years to come.

My clothes are to be divided by my husband to each of my daughters, Ennis Marie Nance and Sandra. My most expensive rings are to be given to Ennis Marie Nance and one ring to be given to Sandra.

Should I be the longest survivor, the house is to be given to Johnny Newsom, unless his name has been changed to Nance by his mother and father, if so than the home will be shared by Johnny and Italia to live in or sell and divide the money from the sale.

Katherine Polk

Sworn and subscribed before me on this 28th. day of November, 1992.
