Jimmy Earl Robertson
(deceased)
TO:
Ruth C. Robertson

Paul E. Robertson, first being duly sworn, made oath as follows:

That he is a brother of Jimmy Earl Robertson, deceased, and is the Administrator of his estate. Jimmy Earl Robertson died in testate April 4, 1992 while a resident and citizen of Chester County , Tennessee. At the time of his death, Jimmy Earl Robertson was not married and had no children. He was survived by his mother, Ruth C. Robertson, as his next of kin. His father, Detroit Robertson, predeceased him. At the time of his death, Jimmy Earl Robertson was the joint owner, with his brother D. J. Robertson and his wife, Janice W. Robertson, of a certain tract or parcel of Real Estate located in Davidson County, Nashville, Tennessee.

The tract or parcel of Real Estate which Jimmy Earl Robertson jointly owned with his brother D. J. Robertson and his wife Janice W. Robertson, is described as follows, to wit:

Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being the northerly 490 feet of the southerly 90 feet of Lots Nos. 221, 222, 223, on the Map of Hefferman Place, as of record in Book 161, Page 138, Register's Office for said County.

Said part of said lot fronts 40 feet on the westerly side of 26th Avenue North and run back between parallel lines, 150 f feet to a dead line.

Being the same property conveyed to Dorothy A Davis by deed from Gaines & Gaines Construction Company, of record in Book 2208, Page 359, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

Ruth C. Robertson inherited said property described above, and the undivided interest of Jimmy Earl Robertson in and to the remainder of the above described real estate, as his next of kin and only heir at law.

WITNESS MY HAND ON THE 7th day of January, 2004.
