LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

MABLE BOND OMOHUNDRO

I, Mable Bond Omohundro, was born on June 13, 1902, in Robertson County, Tennessee, and have since lived in Davidson County, Tennessee most of my adult life, and being of sound mind and body and realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make, publish, and declare the following to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills or codicils heretofore made by me.

I

I direct that all my just debts, including my reasonable funeral expense, any doctors' or hospital bills, and any other necessary expense be first paid without apportionment among the beneficiaries, all as soon as practical after my demise.

II

I give, devise, and bequeath all the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate property, personal, real and mixed of every kind and character, wheresoever situated, of which I die possessed unto my daughter, Dorothy Jean Omohundro Sorrells, and to my son, Richard Bond Omohundro, equally, to share and share alike. Should either my daughter, Dorothy Jean Omohundro Sorrells, or my son, Richard Bond Omohundro, not survive me, then the share of such child not surviving me shall go to the children of that child per stirpes rather than per capita.

III

I hereby nominate and appoint my son, Richard Bond Omohundro, as Executor of this, my Last Will and Testament, provided however, if he does not survive me or if he is unable or unwilling to act in this capacity, then as an alternate, I nominate and appoint my daughter, Dorothy Jean Omohundro Sorrells, as Executrix under this, my Last Will and Testament. I direct that my Executor or Executrix have sole discretion as to the disposition of any assets, if required for distribution, so as to obtain the highest and best price.

I request the Court that no bond be required of my Executor or Executrix in the performance of the duties thereof and that no inventory of my estate need be filed.

WITNESS my hand this this 14th day of January, 1993.

Mable Bond Omohundro
