Last Will and Testament

OF

CLEMMIE IDELLA PARDUE

04P-1492

I, CLEMMIE IDELLA PARDUE, domiciled in Davidson County, Tennessee, do make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils at any time heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I

I direct that all of my just debts, my funeral expenses and the costs of administration of my estate be paid as soon as practicable after my death. My Executrix in her sole discretion, may pay from my domiciliary estate all or any portion of the costs of ancillary administration and similar proceedings in other jurisdictions.

ARTICLE II

To my daughter, Peggy Ann Bogle, I devise and bequeath my wedding rings and my sewing machine, #0055856.

ARTICLE III

All the rest, residue and remainder of the property which I may own at the time of my death, real, personal, and mixed, tangible and intangible, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, including all property which I may acquire or become entitled to after the execution of this Will, including all lapsed legacies and devises and all life insurance payable to my estate (but excluding any property over or concerning which I may have any power of appointment), I bequeath and devise in fee to my husband, Winfield Clifton Pardue in fee simple. If my said husband, Winfield Clifton Pardue, shall not survive me, then I bequeath and devise his 38 Iver Johnson Sea # G26231; his red craftsman tool box with contents; and his diamond ring to my son Clifton Ray Pardue. I further bequeath my husbands 12 guage shotgun; his Bulova retirement watch; his black stone initial ring; his old money; and his gray tool box with contents to my son Billy C. Pardue. All the rest and remainder of my property I devise and bequeath to my three children, Peggy Ann Bogle, Clifton Ray Pardue and Billy C. Pardue. In the event one or more of my children predecease me, I bequeath and devise their share to their living children and grandchildren, equally.

ARTICLE IV

If my husband, Winfield Clifton Pardue, and I shall die under such circumstances that there is not sufficient evidence to determine the order of our deaths, or if he shall die within a period of six (6) months after the date of my death, then all bequests, devises and provisions made under this will to or for his benefit shall be administered, in all respects, as though my said husband, Winfield Clifton Pardue, had not survived me.

ARTICLE V

It is my express intention that if one or more of my children's names appear on property that I, or my husband and I own, that said ownership shall not be interpreted to mean that their is joint ownership with the child or children; the placement of a child or children's names on any property prior to my death was solely done for accessibility to said property in the event of an emergency.

ARTICLE VI

I hereby appoint my daughter-in-law, Judy Decker Pardue, as Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament, or in the event she predeceases me or cannot serve, I appoint my daughter, Peggy Ann Bogle. I authorize my Executrix to do any and all things which in her sole opinion are necessary to complete the administration and settlement of my estate. I expressly give my said Executrix power to convey land and grant title within the terms of this Will. I further direct that no security be required of my Executrix hereof upon her qualification.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name on this 19 day of November, 1987, at Nashville, Tennessee.
