Shah Musa Mohammed

The applicant Ato Mohammed Abdella Hasson has appeared.

The Summons woizero Medina Desalegn didb't appear.

The court has come to know that woizero Medina Desalegn has refused to receive the letter sent to her by the court. According to the civil code number 103 the returned letter is attached with the file.

Based on civil code number 205,206 the applicant certified by swearing an oath that the summons refuses to receive the letter.

After that the court gave the following decision.

Decision

The applicant Ato Mohammed Abdella Hasson has requested the court giving an application written on 19 February 2002, which explains that he, and woizero Medina Desalegn Abdu had been married while they were in Sudan, Khartoum. The marriage agreement was concluded according to the Shariah law. This was done 1983 after Medina has changed her religion from Christianity to Islam. It was after that, that we have gone to America Nashville Tennessee State. However when Medina came to Ethiopia to visit her relatives she is found changed to Christianity. Due to the change of her religion and being unable to concieve; I appeal to the court to put an end to our marriage.

The witnesses who attended our marriage ceremony are: -

1. Ato Abdulahe Hasson address Gondar town kebele 10
2. Ato Edrie Omer address Gondar town kebele 10
3. Ato Kasim Abdella

They unanimously ensured that Ato Mohammed Abdella Hasson and Medina Desalgn Abdu had been married and lived being husband and wife.

The court has considered the case by saying that at this age, Ato Mohammed Abdella Hasson has to marry another lady and get child. According to the Shariah law it is the husband who has the right to divorce. Thus the applicant has requested the court to justify it. The court considered both the kuran and the Shariah Laws and justified the divorce.

Order

The marriage of Ato Mohammed Abdella Hasson and woizero Medina Desalegn Abdu is divorced by the decision of the court. Having ruled that a copy of the decision be given to the concerned body, I have returned the file to the archive.

Sealed and signed.
