AFFIDAVIT OF HEIRSHIP

STATE OF TENNESSEE)
COUNTY OF DAVIDSON)

We, Susan Reagan, David Hansen and Darcy Hansen, after being duly sworn, depose and say as follows:

1. Our names are Susan Reagan, David Hansen and Darcy Hansen. We reside at 221 Winburn Lane, Franklin, TN 37069, 4420 Scenic Drive, Nashville, TN 37204, and 4601 Butterworth Pl. N.W., Washington, D.C., respectively.

2. We are the only children of Shirley J. Hansen, deceased, and there are no predeceased children.

3. Our mother, Shirley J. Hansen, was the owner of real property in Davidson County, Tennessee, more particularly described as follows:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot No. 121 on the plan of Somerset Farms, Section 4, Phase 2, a PUD, as of record in Book 9700, Page 366, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee, to which said plan reference is hereby made for a more complete and accurate legal description thereof.
> Being the same property conveyed to Shirley J. Hansen, by warranty deed from Somerset Farms, A Tennessee Joint Venture, of record in Book 10583, page 468, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee
> This is improved property known as 6964 Somerset Farms Circle, Nashville, TN 37221.

4. Shirley J. Hansen died May 13, 2005 leaving her three children, as her sole heirs at law. At the time of her death, Shirley J. Hansen was the sole owner of the above property commonly known as 6964 Somerset Farms Circle, Nashville, TN 37221.

5. We are Shirley J. Hansen's three children. We are adults, and we are the three sole heirs at law of Shirley J. Hansen.

6. This property has never been used as marital property and no marital rights have attached to it.

7. There were and are no debts or claims against Shirley J. Hansen or the estate of Shirley J. Hansen which are or would be payable from the real property described above, whether or not such claims have been filed in the courts of Davidson County, Tennessee.

8. There were and are no federal, state, or local taxes, including death taxes on the estate of Shirley J. Hansen, which constitute a lien against the real property described above.

9. There were and are no Tennessee inheritance taxes due by reason of the death of Shirley J. Hansen which are payable from the real property described above.

Dated this 22 day of June, 2005.

Last Will and Testament

SHIRLEY J. HANSEN

I, Shirley J. Hansen, of Davidson County, Tennessee, declare this to be my Will, and I revoke all prior Wills and Codicils that I have made.

ARTICLE I

All estate, inheritance, and other death taxes (including interest and penalties, if any, but excluding any generation-skipping tax), together with all administration expenses, payable in any jurisdiction by reason of my death (including those taxes and expenses payable with respect to assets which do not pass under this Will) shall be paid out of and charged generally against the principal of my residuary estate, without apportionment. I waive any right of reimbursement for, recovery of, or contribution toward the payment of those death taxes and administration expenses, except my personal representative shall seek reimbursement for, recovery of, or contribution toward the payment of any increase in federal or state estate tax attributable to property in which I have a qualifying income interest for life or over which I have a power of appointment which is not otherwise paid or payable. Any generation-skipping tax resulting from a transfer occurring under this Will shall be charged to the property constituting the transfer in the manner provided by applicable law.

SJH

ARTICLE II

A. I give all the tangible personal property that I own at my death, including any household furniture and furnishings, automobiles, books, pictures, jewelry, art objects, hobby equipment and collections, wearing apparel, and other articles of household or personal use or ornament, to Elwood Frank Hansen ("my spouse"), if my spouse is living on the thirtieth day after the date of my death, or, if my spouse is not then living, to such of my children as are living on the thirtieth day after the date of my death, subject to the provisions of Article V (G) of this Will, in shares of substantially equal value, to be divided in such manner as they shall agree or, if they shall fail to agree upon a division within six months after the date of my death, as my personal representatives shall determine.

B. All costs of safeguarding, insuring, packing, and storing my tangible personal property before its distribution and of delivering each item to the place of residence of the beneficiary of that item shall be deemed to be expenses of administration of my estate.

ARTICLE III

I give my residuary estate, which shall not include any property over which I have power of appointment, to my spouse, if living on the thirtieth day after the date of my death. If my spouse is not then living, I give $20,000.00 to my daughter Susan Hansen Reagan as an adjustment for educational benefits and currently outstanding loans received by my other children during my life. After that specific bequest, the remainder of my residuary estate shall be given to my children, share and share alike, per stirpes, subject to the provisions of Article V(G) of this Will; provided, however, that if any descendant of mine has not reached legal age under the law of the jurisdiction in which that descendant is domiciled at the time of distribution under this Article, then distribution of his or her share shall be made instead to the Trustee under this Will for that descendant in accordance with applicable law and the subsequent provisions of this Will.

ARTICLE IV

In the event the Trust comes into existence through the occurrence of events described in the preceding Articles of this Will, I give the Trustee designated in Paragraph B of Article VII of this Will, to be held as a separate trust named the Hansen Family Trust (the Trust), all my residuary estate, being all property, real or personal, wherever situated, in which I may have any interest at my death not otherwise effectively disposed of, but not including any property over which I have power of appointment. The Trust shall be administered as follows:

A. Commencing as of the date of my death, the Trustee shall distribute to any one or more of my descendants from time to time living as much of the net income and principal of the Trust, even to the extent of exhausting principal, as the Trustee believes desirable from time to time for the health, support in reasonable comfort, education, best interests, and welfare of my descendants, considering all circumstances and factors deemed pertinent by the Trustee; provided, however, that:

1. Any undistributed net income shall be accumulated and added to the principal of the Trust, as from time to time determined by the Trustee;

2. My primary concern during the lives of my descendants is for the health, support in reasonable comfort, best interests, and welfare of each of them, and the Trustee need not consider the interest of any other beneficiary in making distributions to my descendants under this paragraph;

3. No distribution made under this paragraph to a descendant of mine shall be charged as an advancement to that descendant; and

4. The Trustee may make unequal distributions to my descendants or may exclude one or more of them, and shall have no duty to equalize those distributions.

B. At the time at my death if there shall be no living descndant of mine under the age of twenty-five years (the "basic distribution date"), the Trustee shall distribute the remaining principal of the Trust, per stirpes, to my then living descendants.

C. Despite the preceding provisions of this instrument, the Trustee may elect to withhold any property otherwise distributable under Paragraph B of this Article to a beneficiary who has not reached the age of twenty-five years and may retain the property for that beneficiary in a separate trust named for the beneficiary, to be distributed to the beneficiary when he or she reaches the age of twenty-five years, or before then if the Trustee so elects. The Trustee shall apply as much of the net income and principal of the trust so retained as the Trustee believes desirable for the health, support in reasonable comfort, education, best interests, and welfare of the beneficiary for whom the trust is named, considering all circumstances and factors deemed pertinent by the Trustee. Any undistributed net income shall be accumulated and added to principal, as from time to time determined by the Trustee. If the beneficiary for whom the trust is named dies before complete distribution of the trust, the remaining net income and principal of the trust shall be distributed to the beneficiary's estate.

ARTICLE V

The provisions of this Article shall apply to each trust held under this instrument:

A. If at any time a beneficiary eligible to receive net income or principal distributions is under legal disability, or in the opinion of the Trustee is incapable of properly managing his or her financial affairs, then the Trustee may make those distributions directly to the beneficiary, to a lawful guardian of the beneficiary, or to a custodian selected by the Trustee for the beneficiary under a Uniform Gifts to Minors Act or similar applicable law, or may otherwise expend the amounts to be distributed for the benefit of the beneficiary in such manner as the Trustee considers advisable. As used throughout this instrument, the term "lawful guardian" shall mean successively in the order named (i) the court-appointed guardian of the estate, (ii) either parent, or (iii) the individual having personal custody (whether or not a court-appointed guardian) where no guardian of the estate has been appointed.

B. Among the circumstances and factors to be considered by the Trustee in determining whether to make discretionary distributions of net income or principal to a beneficiary are the other income and assets known to the Trustee to be available to that beneficiary and the advisability of supplementing such income or assets. As used throughout this instrument, the term "education" includes, but is not limited to, private schooling at the elementary and secondary school level, college, graduate and professional education, and specialized or vocational training.

C. In all circumstances, despite any provision of law to the contrary, no power of appointment shall be subject to involuntary exercise, and no interest of any beneficiary shall be subject to anticipation, to claims for alimony or support, to voluntary transfer without the written consent of the Trustee, or to involuntary transfer in any event.

D. Any trust principal or net income as to which a power of appointment is exercised shall be distributed to the appointee or appointees upon such conditions and estates, in such manner (in trust or otherwise), with such powers, in such amounts or proportions, and at such time or times (but not beyond the period permitted by any applicable rule of law relating to perpetuities) as the holder of the power may specify in the instrument exercising the power. In determining whether a testamentary power of appointment has been exercised, the Trustee may rely on a will admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as the will of the holder of the power or may assume the holder left no will in the absence of actual knowledge of one within three months after the holder's death.

E. If at any time the Trustee shall determine that the trust is of a size that is no longer economical to administer, the Trustee, without further responsibility, may (but need not) distribute the trust to the beneficiary for whom the trust is named, or, in the case of the Family Trust, per stirpes, to my then living descendants.

F. Notwithstanding any other provision of this instrument, at the end of twenty-one years after the death of the last to die of myself and all descendants of mine who are living at my death, the Trustee shall distribute the principal and all accrued or undistributed net income of the trust to the beneficiary for whom the trust is named.

G. For all purposes of this instrument, in determining whether a person is a child or descendant of any other person, legal adoption before the person adopted reached the age of twenty-one years, but not thereafter, whether single or successive, shall be equivalent in all respects to blood relationship.

ARTICLE VI

A. The Trustee shall have the following powers with respect to each trust held under this instrument, exercisable in the discretion of the Trustee:

John D. Kitch, Attorney at Law, Suite 305, 2300 Hillsboro Road, Nashville, Tennessee 37212

1. To retain for any period of time without limitation, and without liability for loss or depreciation in value, any property transferred to the Trustee, including partnership interests (whether general, special, or limited) even though the Trustee could not properly purchase the property as a trust investment and though its retention might violate principles of investment diversification;

2. To sell at public or private sale, wholly or partly for cash or on credit, contract to sell, grant or exercise options to buy, convey, transfer, exchange, or lease (for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust) any real or personal property of the trust, and to partition, dedicate, grant easements in or over, subdivide, improve , and remodel, repair, or raze improvements on any real property of the trust, and in general to deal otherwise with the trust property in such manner, for such prices, and on such terms and conditions as any individual might do as outright owner of the property;

3. To borrow money at interest rates then prevailing from any individual, bank, or other source, irrespective of whether any such individual or bank is then acting as trustee, and to create security interests in the trust property by mortgage, pledge, or otherwise;

4. To invest in bonds, common or preferred stocks, notes, real estate mortgages, common trust funds, shares of regulated investment companies, partnership interests (whether general, special, or limited), or other securities or property, real or personal, including partial interests, such as life estate, term or remainder interests, without being limited by any statute or rule of law governing investments by trustees;

5. To make allocations, divisions, and distributions of trust property in cash or in kind, or partly in each; to allocate different kinds or disproportionate shares of property or undivided interests in property among the beneficiaries or separate trusts, without liability for, or obligation to make compensating adjustments by reason of, disproportionate allocations of unrealized gain for federal income tax purposes; and to determine the value of any property so allocated, divided, or distributed;

6. To exercise in person or by general or limited proxy all voting and other rights, powers, and privileges and to take all steps to realize all benefits with respect to stocks or other securities; and to enter into or oppose, alone or with others, voting trusts, mergers, consolidations, foreclosures, liquidations, reorganizations, or other changes in the financial structure of any corporation;

7. To cause any security or other property to be held, without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship, in the name of the Trustee, in the name of a nominee, or in unregistered form;

8. To pay all expenses incurred in the administration of the trust, including reasonable compensation to any trustee, and to employ or appoint and pay reasonable compensation to accountants, depositaries, investment counsel, attorneys, attorneys-in-fact, and agents (with or without discretionary powers);

9. To deal with the fiduciary or fiduciaries of any other trust or estate, even though the trustee is also the beneficiary or one of the fiduciaries of the other trust or estate;

10. To compromise or abandon any claim in favor of or against the trust;

11. To lend money to the personal representative of my estate or my spouse's estate, and to purchase property from the personal representative of either estate and retain it for any period of time without limitation, and without liability for loss or depreciation in value, notwithstanding any risk, lack of productivity, or lack of diversification;

John D. Kitch, Attorney at Law, Suite 305, 2300 Hillsboro Road, Nashville, Tennessee 37212

12. To commingle for investment purposes the property of the trust with the property of any other trust held hereunder, allocating to each trust an undivided interest in the commingled property;

13. To receive any property, real or personal, to be added to the trust, if the trustee consents in writing, from any person, by lifetime or testamentary transfer or otherwise;

14. To execute instruments of any kind, including instruments containing covenants and warranties binding upon and creating a charge against the trust property and containing provisions excluding personal liability; and

15. To perform all other acts necessary for the proper management, investment, and distribution of the trust property.

B. The powers granted in this Article shall be in addition to those granted by law and may be exercised even after termination of all trusts hereunder until actual distribution of all trust principal, but not beyond the period permitted by any applicable rule of law relating to perpetuities.

C. To the extent that such requirements can legally be waived, no trustee hereunder shall ever be required to give bond or security as trustee, or to qualify before, be appointed by, or account to any court, or to obtain the order of approval of any court with respect to the exercise of any power or discretion granted in this instrument.

D. The Trustee's exercise or nonexercise of powers and discretions in good faith shall be conclusive on all persons. No person paying money or delivering property to any trustee hereunder shall be required or privileged to see to its application. The certificate of the Trustee that the Trustee is acting in compliance with this instrument shall fully protect all persons dealing with the Trustee.

John P. Kitch, Attorney at Law, Suite 305, 2300 Hillsboro Road, Nashville, Tennessee 37212

E. This instrument and all dispositions hereunder shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Tennessee.

F. The compensation of any corporate trustee shall be in accordance with its published schedule of fees as in effect at the time the services are rendered. Such compensation may be charged to principal or to income or partly to each in the discretion of the corporate trustee.

ARTICLE VII

A. Any trustee may resign at any time by giving prior written notice to the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom the current trust income may or must then be distributed.

B. On my death, I name Elwood Frank Hansen as Trustee of each trust created under this Will, if any. If he is unable or unwilling to serve in this capacity I name Susan Hansen Reagan as Trustee of each trust created under this will, if any. Except as otherwise provided in Paragraphs D and E of this Article, if an appointed Trustee fails or ceases to act as Trustee hereunder for any reason, or if any successor trustee appointed as hereinafter provided ceases to act as trustee hereunder for any reason, the person or persons indicated in Paragraph F of this Article shall, by written instrument, appoint any person (other than a descendant of mine), or any bank or trust company, within or outside the State of Tennessee, as successor trustee.

C. The person or persons indicated in Paragraph F of this Article may at any time, by written instrument, approve the accounts of the trustee with the same effect as if the accounts had been approved by a court having jurisdiction of the subject matter and of all necessary parties.

D. If any corporate trustee designated to act or at any time acting hereunder is merged with or transfers substantially all of its assets to another corporation, or is in any other manner reorganized or reincorporated, the resulting or transferee corporation shall become trustee in place of its corporate predecessor.

E. As often as the Trustee shall deem such action to be advantageous to the trusts or to any beneficiary, the Trustee may, by written instrument, resign and appoint as substitute trustee with respect to all or any part of the trust principal, including property as to which the Trustee cannot act, any person (other than a descendant of mine), or any bank or trust company, within or outside the State of Tennessee. The substitute trustee shall have all of the title, powers, and discretion of the original Trustee, but shall exercise the same under the supervision of the resigning Trustee, who shall act as adviser to the substitute trustee. The advisers may at any time remove the substitute trustee by written instrument delivered to the substitute trustee. Upon the removal or resignation of the substitute trustee, the adviser may resume the office of Trustee or may continue to act as advisers and appoint another substitute trustee. Any advisers may receive reasonable compensation for services as advisers.

F. A successor trustee may be appointed pursuant to Paragraph B of this Article and the accounts of the trustee may be approved pursuant to Paragraph C of this Article by a majority in number of the beneficiaries to whom the current trust income may or must then be distributed. If any person so entitled to act is then under legal disability, the instrument of appointment or approval may be signed by the lawful guardian of such person on his or her behalf.

G. The incumbent trustee shall have all of the title, powers, and discretion granted to the original Trustee, without court order or act of transfer. No successor trustee shall be personally liable for any act or failure to act of a predecessor trustee. With the approval of the person or persons indicated in Paragraph

F of this Article who may approve the accounts of the trustee, a successor trustee may accept the account furnished, if any, and the property delivered by or for a predecessor trustee without liability for so doing, and such acceptance shall be a full and complete discharge of the predecessor trustee.

ARTICLE VIII

A. I name Elwood Frank Hansen as personal representative under this Will. If he fails or ceases to act as personal representative, then I name Susan Hansen Reagan and John D. Kitch as personal representatives in place of Shirley J. Hansen. No personal representative of this Will shall be required to furnish bond or other security as personal representative.

B. If the appointment of a personal representative of my estate is necessary or desirable in any jurisdiction in which no personal representative herein named is able and willing to act, I appoint as my personal representative in that jurisdiction such person (who may be an officer or employee of a corporate personal representative then acting) or corporation as may be designated in an instrument signed by my personal representative under Paragraph A of this Article, if legally competent, otherwise by a majority of my beneficiaries, if legally competent, that personal representative to serve without bond, or if bond is required, without surety thereon, and to have all the powers and discretion with respect to my estate in that jurisdiction that are set forth or referred to in Paragraph C of this Article, to be exercised without court order. As used in this Will, the terms "personal representatives" and "personal representative" designate any court-appointed fiduciaries or fiduciary of my estate from time to time qualified and acting in any jurisdiction.

C. In addition to all powers granted by law, my personal representatives shall have all the powers and discretion with respect to my estate during administration that are set forth or referred to with respect to the Trustee hereunder (including the power to sell real or personal property at public or private sales for any purpose and to hold title to property in the name of a nominee), to be exercised without court order.

D. I empower my personal representatives (i) to make such elections under the tax laws as my personal representatives deem advisable, including an election to create qualified terminable interest property for both estate and generation-skipping tax purposes or for estate tax purposes alone, and (ii) to allocate the unused portion, if any, of my GST exemption (as defined in this paragraph) to any property with respect to which I am the transferor for generation-skipping tax purposes (irrespective of whether such property passes under this Will) in such manner as my personal representatives deem advisable, in each case without regard to the relative interests of the beneficiaries; however, my personal representatives shall not make adjustments between principal and income, or in the interests of the beneficiaries, to compensate for the effects of such elections and allocation. Any decision made by my personal representatives with respect to the exercise of any tax election or the allocation of my GST exemption shall be binding and conclusive on all persons. As used in this Paragraph, the "GST exemption" means the exemption from generation-skipping tax allowed under Section 2631 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended.

E. I direct that the compensation of any corporate personal representative shall be in accordance with its published schedule of fees as in effect at the time the services are rendered.

F. I direct that no inventory or other court accountings be required. The personal representative's only responsibility for statements and accountings shall be to furnish a complete final accounting to the beneficiaries of my residuary estate.

John D. Kitch, Attorney at Law, Suite 305, 2300 Hillsboro Road, Nashville, Tennessee 37212

I signed this Will on Nov. 7, 1991, 1991.

I, Shirley Hansen, in accordance with my deceased husband Elwood's wishes, desire to amend my will in the following manner:

Susan Hansen Reagan be left $20,000 to make up the difference in the schooling between her sister, Darcy, and her brother, David.

The house, the bonds, and the funds shall be sold and divided equally among my three children, David Hansen, Susan Hansen Reagan, and Darcy Hansen Thomas after $10,000 is set aside for each grandchild. The grandchildren are: Nathaniel Hansen, Ashley Hansen, Jennifer Hansen, Emily Hansen, Megan Thomas, Katie Thomas, and Julie Reagan. The money left to the grandchildren shall be invested at the discretion of Jack Reagan until each child reaches twenty-four years of age, and then it shall be theirs to do with as they wish.

To my grandchild, Katherine Thomas, I leave the red Wedgewood ruby dishes that she has wanted and the gold watch that was her great, great, great, aunt, Henrietta Kallas'. It is to be given to her when she can appreciate it.

To Megan Thomas, the Syracuse china.

To Nathaniel Hansen, the silver flatware engraved with an "H."

To Ashley Hansen, the blue porcelain dishes, cake plates, and the cups and saucers, and the crystal.

To Jennifer Hansen, a gold pin with diamonds.

To Emily, the cameo pin that Papa bought in San Francisco when she was born.

To Julie Ann Reagan, the Lenox china Christmas dishes which her mother has right now.

Susan Hansen Reagan and Darcy Hansen Thomas shall determine the distribution of my diamond rings.

In case these provisions conflict with any provisions in my will, these amendments shall prevail.
