FINAL DECREE

This cause came to be heard on the 7th day of March, 2005, before the Honorable Carol Soloman, Judge of the Eighth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, for trial. The Court finds that the parties have reached a mutual agreement on all property issues and all issues involving their minor children, which agreement the Court is pleased to approve and make the Order of the Court as follows:

1. Upon stipulation of the parties that grounds exist for divorce, the Court declares the parties to be divorced pursuant to T.C.A. Section 36-4-129.

2. Each party shall be awarded all personal property, household furnishings, clothing, pension or retirement, vehicle(s), bank accounts and miscellaneous personal property of whatever description titled to that party or in that party's possession, free of all claims of the other party.

3. The Wife shall receive all right, title and interest in and to the real property owned by the parties, including their marital home, as is particularly described herein and all interest of the Husband be and is divested out of him and vested solely in the Wife.

4. The marital residence is valued at $71,800.00. Deducting a 3% real estate commission leaves a value of $69,646.00. There is a mortgage balance of $50,953.00.

The Husband's equitable share of the joint real property is $9,346.00, which shall be offset against the arrears in pendente lite child support owed by the Husband as of the date of hearing, amounting to $13, 350.00. Offsetting said amounts leaves an arrearage owing by the Husband to the Wife in pendente lite child support as of March 7, 2005, in the amount of $4,004.00, which judgment the Wife shall have against the Husband.

5. The Husband shall pay regular child support as set forth in the parenting plan of $496.00 monthly, plus $50.00 monthly arrears payment, for a total of $546.00 monthly, to be paid in installments of $126.00 weekly, beginning March 7, 2005.

6. The Wife's proposed parenting plan attached hereto is adopted and approved as the parties' permanent parenting plan with the changes to Husband's visitation times, holidays, and child support noted in the plan attached hereto.

7. The Wife shall pay the mortgage on the marital residence to Old Hickory Credit Union and hold the Husband harmless from all liability for those payments. The Wife shall make each payment when due. The Wife will not be required to refinance the mortgage. However, if the Wife becomes more than 60 days delinquent in the joint house payments and the Husband is current in his child support payments to Wife, the Husband may file a motion with the Court seeking to have the property sold and the mortgage paid off so as to protect his credit. If the Court orders the sale of the property, all net proceeds will be the Wife's property, free of all claims of the Husband.

8. Except for the Old Hickory Credit Union mortgage, each party will pay all debts in his or her separate name and hold the other party harmless from all liability thereon.

9. Each party shall pay their own attorneys fees.

10. Court costs will be assessed against the Husband.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the the parties are hereby declared to be divorced pursuant to T.C.A. Section 36-4-129, that the bonds of matrimony existing between the parties are hereby perpetually dissolved and that each party is restored to all the rights and privileges of unmarried persons.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the Wife's proposed parenting plan attached hereto with modifications as announced in open court be and is hereby adopted and approved by the Court as the parties' permanent parenting plan based on the stipulation of the parties, as follows:

[x] Disputes between parties, other than the child support disputes, shall be submitted to:

[ ] Counseling by _____

[x] Mediation by a rule 31 family law mediator mutually selected by the parties or appointed by court. _____

[ ] Arbitration by _____

The cost of this process shall be allocated between the parties as follows:

[ ] _____ % mother, _____ % father

[ ] based on each party's proportional share of income from the child support guidelines

[x] as determined in the dispute resolution process or by Court;

The counseling, mediation or arbitration process shall be commenced by notifying the other party by [x] written request [ ] certified mail [ ] other:

In the dispute process:

a. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan

b. Unless an emergency exists, the parents shall use the designated process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the plan, except those related to financial support.

c. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling or mediation and of each arbitration award and shall be provided to each party.

d. If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court shall award attorneys' fees and financial sanctions to the other parent.

e. The parties have the right of review from the dispute resolution process to the court.

[ ] No dispute resolution process, except court action, shall be ordered, because [ ] a limiting factor under TCA 36-6-108 applies or [x] one parent is unable to afford the cost of the proposed dispute resolution process.

VI. STANDARD PARENTING ORDERS

Pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated 36-6-101(a) both parents are entitled to the following rights:

1. unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice each week at reasonable times and for reasonable duration;

2. sending mail to the child which the custodial parent will not open and will not censor;

3. receiving notice and relevant information as soon as practical (but not more than 24 hours) in the event of hospitalization, major illness, or death of the child;

4. receiving, directly from the school, copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, teacher's names, class schedules, standardized test scores, and other records which are customarily made available to parents. A written request must be made to the school with a current mailing address and payment must be made for the reasonable cost of duplicating and mailing these records;

5. receiving, directly from the child's physician and other health care providers, copies of the child's medical records. A written request must be made to the health care provider with a current mailing address and payment must be made for the reasonable cost of duplicating and mailing these records;

6. to be free of derogatory remarks made about the noncustodial parent and his or her family by the custodial parent to the child or in the child's presence.

7. to be given at least 48 hours notice, wherever possible, of all extracurricular activities, and the opportunity to participate or observe, including, but not limited to, school activities, athletic activities, church activities and other activities as to which parental participation or observation would be appropriate.

8. to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than two (2) days, an itinerary including telephone numbers for use in the event of an emergency; and

9. access and participation in education, including access to the minor child or children for lunch and other activities on the same basis that is provided to all parents, provided the participation is reasonable and does not interfere with day to day operations or with the child's educational performance.

Either parent may petition for a return to court, paying appropriate fees for mediation on any further parenting issues.

VII. OTHER PROVISIONS
