I, DALTON EDWARD EARHEART, a citizen and resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, aware of the uncertainty of life and the sureness of death, and not acting under duress or undue influence of any person or persons whomsoever, do make, publish and declare this instrument as and to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void any and all other wills heretofore made by me.

FIRST: I hereby instruct and direct my Executor hereinafter named to pay all of my just debts, including the expense of my last illness, if any, and the expense of my funeral and burial, as soon after my decease as may be practical, and the expense of the administration of my estate as hereinafter directed, from funds coming into his hands, promptly, and in accordance with priority designated by law.

SECOND: I hereby give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Flora Ann Earheart, should she survive me, all of my estate, both real and personal, in fee simple and absolutely.

THIRD: In the event my beloved wife, Flora Ann Earheart, does not survive me, then I give, devise and bequeath all of my property to my son, Robert Edward Earheart, in fee simple and absolutely.

FOURTH: I designate and appoint my son, Robert Edward Earheart, as Executor of this my last will and testament, and I direct that he serve as such without being required to make bond.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and subscribed my name to this my last will and testament containing two sheets of paper, including the attestation clause, written on one side only, on this the 25th day of March, 1969.
