subdivision in Williamson County Tennessee. The Husband shall assume, pay and hold the Wife harmless on all mortgage debt thereon. Said real property is more particularly described as follows:

> Land situated, lying and being in the 16th Civil district of Williamson County, Tennessee, and being known and designates as Lot 51, Liberty Downs, Subdivision, as shown on the plat of Liberty Downs Subdivision in Plat Book 11, page 49, revised and re-recorded July 13, 1988 in Plat Book 12, page 24;revised and re-recorded August 27, 1992 in Plat Book 16, page 123, Register's Office for Williamson County, Tennessee.

6. MOTOR VEHICLES. The 2003 Chrysler Sebring shall become the property of Wife. Husband shall assume, pay and hold the Wife harmless from liability thereon. Husband shall execute any documents necessary to convey title to this vehicle to Wife within ten days after the entry of the final decree of divorce.

7. DEBTS. The Husband shall assume, pay and hold the Wife harmless on the second mortgage debt secured by the condominium unit at 5845 Nolensville Road #306 to Countrywide Mortgage Company with the approximate principle balance of $24,106.00 within ten days of the entry of the final decree. Except as herein otherwise provided, there are no outstanding debts for which the Parties are jointly responsible. Neither Party shall take any action which will obligate the other Party. Each Party shall be solely responsible for all such debts incurred by said Party and shall hold the other harmless therefrom.

8. INCOME TAX LIABILITY. Husband shall be liable for any and all federal and state income tax liability for his personal and business return through the tax year 2006. Wife shall be responsible for her personal federal and state income tax liability for tax years 2004, 2005 and 2006.

9. ALIMONY. The Husband shall pay directly to the Wife as transitional alimony the sum of $250.00 per month for a period of 36 months beginning the first day of the month following the entry of the Final Decree.

10. PROPERTY DIVISION AND RELEASE. The Husband shall pay directly to the Wife the sum of $5,000.00 as a division of marital property on the first day of the month following the entry of the Final Decree. The Wife expressly agrees and acknowledges that upon payment of this sum she hereby forever releases the Husband from further obligation to pay the Wife or anyone else 1,354 gold coins (Bahar Azadi) as provided for in an agreement executed and registered in Iran on or about May 8, 2000.

The Wife is divested of any right, title or interest she may have in an incorporated business known as Tennessee Auto Group and Leasing, Inc. and the Husband is awarded same as his sole and separate property.

11. REMOVAL OF CHILD FROM COURT'S JURISDICTION. Neither party shall take the minor child out of the jurisdiction of this court for any reason without the written permission of the other parent. To better effect the terms of this provision, the child's United States Passport and her Iranian birth certificate shall be placed in a bank safe deposit box which requires simultaneous access by both parties. In the event no such safe deposit box is available, the Husband's attorney shall hold these documents.

12. COSTS AND ATTORNEY'S FEES. Each Party shall be responsible for the payment of his or her attorney's fees, if any. The Parties shall share equally in the costs of this cause.

13. FULL SETTLEMENT. This Agreement is intended to be a final settlement of all property rights and support rights and obligations of the respective Parties hereto and shall constitute a discharge from all claims of any nature arising out of their marital relationship except as provided herein. Each Party hereby waives and relinquishes to the other all rights or claims which each may have or hereafter acquire under the law of any jurisdiction with respect to the other's property, including without limitation, dower, courtesy, statutory allowance, homestead rights, right to take against the will of the other, inheritance, descent or distribution, or right to act as administrator or executor of the other's estate except as provided by the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the Parties. There are no representations, warranties or promises other than those expressly set forth herein.

14. VOLUNTARY AGREEMENT. This Agreement is entered into without undue influence, fraud, coercion or misrepresentation, or for any reason not herein stated. The provisions in this Agreement and their legal effects are fully understood by each of the Parties, and each Party acknowledges that the Agreement is fair and equitable and that it is being entered into voluntarily.

15. DOCUMENTS. Each Party shall in a timely fashion execute and deliver any and all instruments necessary or required in order to implement the terms of this Agreement including but not limited to deeds, titles and release documents.

16. BINDING EFFECT. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto, their personal representatives, heirs and assigns.

17. SEVERABILITY. In the event any provisions of this Agreement shall be held invalid by a Court of competent jurisdiction, such individual provision shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement, said provisions being severable.

18. This agreement shall be exhibited to the Court and incorporated in the final judgment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this agreement the day and year first above written and have initialed the pages.

In the dispute resolution process:

A. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.
B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.
C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.
D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations;
(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not open or censor;
(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any event of hospitalization, major illness or death of the child;

(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any school records customarily made available to parents. (The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and upon payment of reasonable costs of duplicating.) These include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;

(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical health or other treatment records directly from the physician or health care provider who provided treatment or health care. (The keeper of the records may require a written request which contains a current mailing address and the payment of reasonable costs of duplication.) No person who receives the mailing address of a parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;

(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about the parent or his or her family by the other parent to the child or in the presence of the child;

(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extra-curricular activities, and the opportunity to participate or observe them. These include the following: school activities, athletic activities, church activities and other activities where parental participation or observation would be appropriate;

(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than two (2) days, an itinerary including telephone numbers for use in the event of an emergency;

(9) The right to access and participation in education on the same basis that is provided to all parents. This includes the right of access to the child for lunch and other activities. However, participation or access must be reasonable and not interfere with day-to-day operations or with the child's educational performance.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

If a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than one hundred (100) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;
(2) Location of proposed new residence;
(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and
(4) Statement that the other parent may file a petition in opposition to the move within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS

This requirement has been fulfilled by ☒ both parents ☐ mother ☐ father ☐ neither.

Failure to attend the parent education class within 60 days of this order is punishable by contempt.

Under penalty of perjury, we declare that this plan has been proposed in good faith and is in the best interest of each minor child and that the statements herein and on the attached child support worksheets are true and correct. (A notary public is required if this is a proposed plan by one parent rather than one agreed by both parents.)
