FINAL DECREE

This cause was heard on the 6th day of March, 2007 before the Honorable Muriel Robinson, Judge, upon the Complaint for Divorce, as amended, filed by the Plaintiff, Tamiko Charese Allen ("Wife") and the Answer and Counter-Complaint for Divorce filed by the Defendant, Corey Lamar Allen ("Husband"). Both parties appeared in person and through counsel. Upon said pleadings, testimony of witnesses in open court, statements of counsel and the entire record herein, the Court finds that Husband was untruthful in his testimony before this Court, that Husband was untruthful in his discovery responses, that Husband has been untruthful in his business dealings, and that Husband has further submitted false financial statements to various lending institutions. This Court therefore finds that Husband is a non-credible witness and that his testimony before this Court should be disregarded or substantially discounted for his lack of credibility.

The Court further finds that while Husband made a good living playing professional basketball and managed to save some money which he brought into this marriage, he then voluntarily and inextricably co-mingled those separate funds with marital funds and thereafter used the funds toward family expenses.

The Court finds that there is a business known as Allen Construction and Remodeling, that the business should be deemed a sole proprietorship, that Husband totally controls the money going into and out of the business, and that Husband should be awarded the business and all debts associated with it, holding Wife harmless on same.

Husband acknowledges that he fathered a child with another woman during this marriage and the Court therefore finds that Wife should be awarded a divorce on the grounds of Inappropriate Marital Conduct on the part of Husband.

The Court finds that it is in the best interest of the parties' minor child, Taylor Brianna Allen, born January 29, 2002, that Wife be named the child's Primary Residential Parent, and this Court approves the Parenting Plan proposed by Wife with regard to the care and support of said minor child.

The Court finds that an equitable division of the parties' marital assets and debts will be accomplished by the division of assets and allocation of debts set forth in this Order below.

The Court finds that Wife should be awarded a judgment against Husband in the amount of $12,500.00 to reimburse her for a portion of her attorneys' fees incurred in prosecuting this matter, which judgment shall be filed as a lien against Husband's interest in the two residential units under construction at 811 Sylvan Drive, Nashville, Tennessee.

The Court finds that Husband should pay all costs of this cause, for which execution should issue if necessary.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Wife is awarded an absolute divorce from Husband on the grounds of Husband's

Inappropriate Marital Conduct, and each party is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties are hereby perpetually dissolved
