FIDUCIARY POWERS CLAUSE:

My Executor and Trustee, if any, shall have all powers granted or otherwise available under applicable laws, and I also grant to my Executor and Trustee any and all powers required to perform any acts that such fiduciary deems necessary for the independent administration, management and distribution of my estate or any trust hereunder. Each Executor and Trustee may exercise all such powers without court approval and at his or her sole discretion. Without limiting the powers available to my Executor and Trustee under law, I specifically grant to such fiduciaries the following powers:

My Executor and Trustee shall have the power to settle claims, pay taxes and debts, and sell real and personal property.

My Executor may pay my funeral expenses without regard to any legal limits on the amount thereof.

My Executor may pay any bequest or devise to a minor for whom a trust is not established hereunder to a custodian named by my Executor under an applicable state's Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, Uniform Gifts to Minors Act or similar legislation.

DEFINITIONS CLAUSE:

For all purposes of this Will, a person's adopted child and his or her descendants shall be considered to have and shall be given exactly the same status as that of a child who was born to such person and the descendants of such a child.

Any direction to distribute property "Per Stirpes" to a person's then–living descendants means that division shall be made equally among the children of such person who are then living or who are then deceased but who have one or more then–living descendants regardless of whether any child of such person is then living, and the share representing each deceased child shall be divided similarly among such child's then–living descendants.
