Will of Rita M. Brannock 7/5/01

This is the last will of my life, and my legacy, to leave to my children, and grandchildren and my great grandchildren. It is my desire to please all of my children, in my will, but I don't want to treat all of my children as the administrator as I know them. John Lee Brannock Sr. and Edwin Allen Brannock Sr. are the Administrators of my will. And be sure that what I wish is carried out as I have stated. There are to be no executors of my last will (Of my wishes) First of all I want the home and the furnishing to go to my son Edwin Allen Brannock; and also my car. 1988 Chev. Celeb.

I want the things that my son John Lee Brannock Sr. the Radio & tape player. The stereo tape and recording machine, and the Chevrolet Cabinet, and the Lee Iron and the coins that I have put up for him and the Music box jewelry box, and anything else that he and Eddy want to get him home. Secondly I want my daughter Elaine to have any of my personal belongings such as clothes and certain jewelry to go to her that I have mentioned. I want Eddy to give her the books that I have accumulated over the years & Encyclopedias that he knows if she wants them. If not, I want them to go

This is my last prayer, I leave behind me, that all of my children will come to the truth of the Eternal God, and our King. that He is our Redeemer, Savior and His name is Abiyel, I have written a letter teaching how to find His name in the scriptures of our bible from the Exodus and all through the old Testament He is our heavenly Father, and our Creator and our God And if you find you would like to know His name, you will be blessed for your studying for it. I guarantee you will be blessed. And I leave you my love and best wishes for a long and happy life - Mom, Granny and Great Granny.
