Dear Shawn,

If you are reading this letter I have hopefully gone to be with God, Sandy, Aunt Joan, Daddy and Nanny. I want you to know that though we have had many, many disagreements and arguments you are and have always been the most important person in my life. I have done many things in my life the wrong way except for having and loving you.

I have left my will in my bed and Valerie to see that it is carried out. I want you to have everything I own with the exception of the following things.

1. Tommy will get $1.00
2. Kinsley and Jennifer share my jewelry
3. Bob & Taylor to get the guns I have of Pa's except for the one he gave you.

If I have one wish for you that will be to get right with God. Turn your life over to him so that you will know peace and freedom from every thing that troubles and aches your heart and mind. Every Problem will be solved if you let God handle it.

Please use this money wisely because I don't know that you'll ever get anything else. This way I know you will always have a home. Please know that I love you with all my heart.

Love,
Mom
