FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come to be heard on the 25th day of March, 2008, before the Honorable Muriel Robinson, Judge of the Fourth Circuit for Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee upon the original Complaint for Divorce heretofore filed by the Wife, upon the statements and arguments of counsel, the testimony of the witnesses and the record as a whole, the Court is of the opinion and does find that the Court has previously stricken all of the pleadings of the Father herein for his failure to cooperate in the discovery and prosecution of the this matter.

The Court further finds that the Husband did not appear in Court on the day of the hearing after having been duly noticed that said hearing was going to take place.

The Court further finds and is of the opinion that the Wife has proven by preponderance of the evidence that she is entitled to a divorce on the grounds of Husband's inappropriate marital conduct pursuant to T.C.A. § 36-4-101(11) including his failure to provide for the Wife and child, his physical and mental abuse of the Wife and his failure to provide any type of support either financial, emotional or otherwise to the Wife.

Davidson County DEEDDIV
Recvd: 05/30/08 14:17 19 pg
Fees:97.00 Taxes:0.00
20080530-0055231

The Court further finds that the Husband has willfully failed to provide any financial support to the Wife or child since the birth of the parties' minor child and that the Court is of the opinion that a child support arrearage shall be set in the amount of $87,944.00.

The Court further finds that it would be inappropriate at this time to set any parenting time for the Father but that he shall be allowed to return to Court by Petition upon showing that it is appropriate to ask the Court set parenting time for him.

The Court further finds that the Parenting Plan submitted by the Wife naming her as the primary residential parent of the child and with the Father having no parenting time is appropriate and should be entered as an Order of the Court.

The Court is further of the opinion and does find that the property in the Wife's name at Brentwood Trace is her sole and separate property and that Husband has no interest in the same. The Court further finds that the property in Wife's name at Torbay Drive, is Wife's separate property and Husband shall have no interest in the same.

The Court is further of the opinion and does find that Husband owns certain real property located on Burgess Road in Whites Creek, Tennessee and that because of Husband's failure to support the child that he shall be enjoined and restrained from selling or otherwise encumbering said property without the express permission of this Court.

The Court further finds that all other personal property currently in the possession of the Wife shall remain her sole, separate and exclusive property free and clear of any claims from the Husband including but not limited to the 1998 Lincoln Navigator in Wife's name.

It is therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED as follows:

(1) That Wife is hereby granted the divorce from the Husband on the grounds of Husband's inappropriate marital conduct and that she is restored all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

(2) That the Parenting Plan submitted by Wife is hereby approved by the Court and the Wife shall be named as the primary residential parent for the parties' minor child with Husband currently having no parenting time subject to the further orders of this Court. The Husband is hereby ordered to pay child support to Wife in the amount of $948.00 per month as set out in the child support worksheet attached to the Parenting Plan as approved by the Court. Further Husband should be required to pay $250.00 per month toward the arrearage set out below all such payments to be made through the Child Support Receipting Unit for the State of Tennessee.

(3) The Wife is awarded a judgment for the amount of $87, 944 for back child support. Said judgment is hereby modifiable upon appropriate showings to the Court by Husband.

(4) Wife is hereby awarded her separate real property located in Brentwood Trace free and clear and from any and all claims of Husband in fee simple absolute. Said property is more fully described as follows:

> A certain condominium apartment in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Unit No. 5749 on the plan of Revised Brentwood Trace Condominiums, of record in Book 5200, page 219, as revised in Book 5200, page 230, and further revised in Book 5200, page 261, all in the Register's Office for said County, which plan and record thereof are incorporated herein and made a part hereof by reference.

In the dispute resolution process:

A. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.
B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.
C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.
D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations;
(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not open or censor;
(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any event of hospitalization, major illness or death of the child;
(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any school records customarily made available to parents. (The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and upon payment of reasonable costs of duplicating.) These include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;
(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical health or other treatment records directly from the physician or health care provider who provided treatment or health care. (The keeper of the records may require a written request which contains a current mailing address and the payment of reasonable costs of duplication.) No person who receives the mailing address of a parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;
(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about the parent or his or her family by the other parent to the child or in the presence of the child;
(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extra-curricular activities, and the opportunity to participate or observe them. These include the following: school activities, athletic activities, church activities and other activities where parental participation or observation would be appropriate;
(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than two (2) days, an itinerary including telephone numbers for use in the event of an emergency;
(9) The right to access and participation in education on the same basis that is provided to all parents. This includes the right of access to the child for lunch and other activities. However, participation or access must be reasonable and not interfere with day-to-day operations or with the child's educational performance.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

If a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than one hundred (100) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;
(2) Location of proposed new residence;
(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and

(4) Statement that the other parent may file a petition in opposition to the move within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS

This requirement has been fulfilled by ☐ both parents ☒ mother ☐ father ☐ neither. Failure to attend the parent education class within 60 days of this order is punishable by contempt.

Under penalty of perjury, we declare that this plan has been proposed in good faith and is in the best interest of each minor child and that the statements herein and on the attached child support worksheets are true and correct. (A notary public is required if this is a proposed plan by one parent rather than one agreed by both parents.)
