ARTICLE III.

POWERS OF FIDUCIARIES

I authorize my Personal Representative, in the exercise of reasonable discretion with respect to all property, real or personal, at any time forming a part of my estate, to exercise any and all powers set forth in Section Three of Chapter 110 of the Tennessee Code Annotated Section 35-50-110, to the extent applicable, all of which provisions and powers are incorporated herein by reference as fully as if copied verbatim. These powers as set out in said statute on the date of the execution of this will are granted, notwithstanding that said statute may be amended hereinafter or repealed at the time of my death. Without in any way intending to limit the generality of the foregoing, I hereby grant to my Personal Representative the continuing, absolute, and discretionary power to deal with my property, real or personal, as freely as I might in handling my own affairs. Such power may be exercised independently and without the prior or subsequent approval of any court or judicial authority, and no person dealing with the Personal Representative shall be required to inquire into the propriety of any of their actions. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, I hereby grant to my Personal Representative the following specific powers and authority in additional to and not in substitution of the powers conferred by law: to sell, exchange, transfer, and convey any security or property, real or personal, and held in my estate, at public or private sale, at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions as the Personal Representative may determine. I specifically authorize the Personal Representative to use any life insurance proceeds that may be payable to my estate for the purposes of paying my funeral expenses, expenses of administration of my estate, and any estate, inheritance, or like taxes that may be imposed by reason of my death. Such insurance proceeds, however, shall be free from the claims of all creditors, except to the extent my Personal Representative deems it desirable to pay such claim from this source.

My Personal Representative shall have the specific powers to sell, mortgage, rent or otherwise enter into any transaction involving real estate I may

ARTICLE IV.

APPOINTMENT OF FIDUCIARIES

I appoint my daughter, Annie Elizabeth Haddock, to be the Personal Representative of this, my Last Will and Testament. If my daughter, Annie Elizabeth Haddock, shall predecease me or for any reason shall fail to qualify as the Personal Representative hereunder or, having qualified, shall die or resign, then in such event I appoint my great granddaughter, Katherine Jane Robinson, to act as the Alternate Personal Representative herein.

My personal representative (including any substitute or successor personal representative) shall not be required to give bond, to file an inventory or accountings, and if, notwithstanding this direction, a bond is required by law, it is requested and directed that no sureties be required thereon.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 22 day of July, 2004 and do publish and declare this as my Last Will and Testament in the presence of each and all the subscribing witnesses whom I have requested to act as such by signing their names as attesting witnesses in my presence and in the presence of each other.
