LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

of

PHILLIP SANDERS SNEED

I, Phillip Sanders Sneed, of Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory and realizing the uncertainty of life, do hereby make and publish this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills and codicils thereto at any time heretofore made by me.

Item One: Payment of Debts and Taxes.

I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid (except debts secured by mortgages or other security instruments, which may be paid off or retained in the discretion of my Executor), including funeral and testamentary expenses and expenses of my last illness. I further direct that all estate, inheritance and other taxes of the same nature which are payable because of my death, including any interest or penalties thereon, with respect to the property comprising my Estate for such tax purposes, whether or not such property passes under this Will and whether such taxes are payable by my Estate or by any recipient or beneficiary of such property, shall be paid out entirely out of my residuary estate, without apportionment and with no right of reimbursement from any recipient or beneficiary of such property.

In the event sufficient funds are not left by me for the payment of same, I hereby authorize and empower my Executor, hereinafter named, in my Executor's sole discretion, to sell such of my property, personal or real, as is necessary to pay the same, disposing first of my perishable property.

Item Two: Disposition of Tangible Personal Property and Keepsakes.

Any furniture, household furnishings, automobiles, jewelry, personal effects and all other items of tangible personal property which I own at the time of my death, I give to David Paul Grimm, for the period of his life provided he survives me; Thus, creating a life estate in David Paul Grimm with the remainder to my niece and nephew, Tiffany Lee Patterson and Eric Chandler Patterson in equal 1/2 portions with the right of survivorship. Their mother, Janis Patterson, shall serve as guardian of this property should either one be under the age of eighteen at the time of their inheritance of said property. When they have both attained the age of eighteen, the property shall be equally divided between the two.

If David Paul Grimm does not survive me, the properties given to David Paul Grimm by this paragraph shall go to directly to my niece and nephew, Tiffany Lee Patterson and Eric Chandler Patterson of Murfreesboro, Tennessee in equal 1/2 portions with the right of survivorship, with their mother, Janis Patterson serving as guardian of the property for the use and benefit of my heirs until they both shall reach the age of eighteen. If in the discretion of my Executor, any such property is not suitable for delivery, the Executor may retain such property in safekeeping for future delivery or may sell such property and add the proceeds to my residuary Estate.

Item Three: Distribution of Real Property and All Other Property.

Except as otherwise directed in Item Two hereof, I hereby give, devise, and bequeath to David Paul Grimm, if he shall survive me, a life estate in all the rest and residue of the property of whatever kind, character, and description, whether real, personal, intangible, or mixed, and wherever situated, which I own or have right to dispose of at my demise and which remains after payment of my just debts and funeral expenses; Thus, creating a life estate in David Paul Grimm with the remainder upon his death to my niece and nephew, Tiffany Lee Patterson and Eric Chandler Patterson, equally in 1/2 portions with the right of survivorship. Their mother, Janis Patterson shall serve as guardian of the property to use for their benefit until both shall reach the age of eighteen when they shall each receive their share of the total estate.

In the event that I am not survived by David Paul Grimm, then I hereby specifically give, devise and bequeath, except as otherwise directed in Item Two hereof, to Eric Chandler Patterson and Tiffany Lee Paterson, equally in 1/2 portions with the right of survivorship, absolutely and in fee simple all of the property of whatever kind, character, and description, whether real, personal, intangible, or mixed, and wherever situated, which I own or have the right to dispose of at my demise and which remains after the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses. Their mother, Janis Patterson, shall act as guardian of said property until each shall reach the age of eighteen at which time the estate shall be equally divided between the two.

Item Four: Testamentary Intent.

I have intentionally omitted to provide for all of my heirs living at the time of my death. My failure to provide in this Will for members of my family should not be interpreted to be a reflection of any lack of feelings, as I have the greatest love and affection for members of my family. I have directed that my estate go to my dear friend, David Paul Grimm, because in life he has been my dearest friend and companion.

Item Five: Appointment of Executor.

I nominate and appoint the said David Paul Grimm, as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament and I authorize my said Executor to do any and all things which in his opinion are necessary to complete the administration and settlement of my estate, including full right, power and authority, without the order of any court and upon such terms and under such conditions as to my said Executor shall deem best for the proper settlement of my estate, to bargain, sell at public or private sale, convey, transfer, deed, mortgage, lease, exchange, pledge, manage and deal with any and all property belonging to my estate, to compromise, settle, adjust, release and discharge any and all obligations or claims in favor of or against my estate, and to borrow money for the payment of inheritance and estate taxes or for any other purpose.

In the event the said David Paul Grimm, does not survive me or for any reason fails to qualify as Executor of my Estate or having once begun to serve as Executor is unwilling or unable to serve as Executor, I nominate and appoint Janis Patterson as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament.

I direct that no bond be required of either David Paul Grimm, or Janis Patterson as Executor.

Item Six: Powers of Executor.

Without in any way limiting scope of powers enumerated herein of my Executor, I hereby give my Executor full power to retain any and all securities or property owned by me at the time of my demise whenever, in my Executor's absolute and controlled discretion, such a course shall seem to my Executor to be best, without liability for depreciation or loss, and free from investment restrictions incident to trusteeship or executorship, whether imposed by common law or statute and to exercise any or all of those powers set forth in Section 39, Chapter 110, of the Tennessee General Assembly of 1963, Tennessee Code Annotated §35-50-110, to the extent applicable, all of which provisions and powers are incorporated herein by reference as fully as if copied verbatim. These powers (as set out in said statute on the date of the execution of this will) are granted, notwithstanding that said statute may be amended or repealed at the time of my death. In the execution of said duties and powers said Executor shall have the power to comply with all legal requirements as to the execution and delivery of deeds and all other writings, documents, or formalities without the order of any Court.

Item Seven: Waiver of Requirement of Inventory and Accountings.

I hereby expressly excuse my Executor from filing any inventory, interim accountings, and final accounting which might otherwise be required pursuant to applicable law, unless such reports are specifically requested by any beneficiary of my residuary Estate.

Item Eight: Ancillary Administration.

If the appointment of an Executor of my Estate is necessary or desirable in any jurisdiction in which the Executor named herein is unable or unwilling to act, I appoint as my Executor in that jurisdiction such person or corporation as may be designated in an instrument signed by the Executor named herein, to serve without security or any bond, and to have all the powers with respect to my estate in that jurisdiction that my Executor named herein is given with respect to my domiciliary Estate (including the power to sell real or personal property at public or private sale for any purpose), to be exercisable as agreed upon by the beneficiaries, without approval of any court.

Item Nine: Funeral Arrangements.

I hereby direct that upon my death, my bodily remains shall be cremated and my ashes be taken care of as directed by my Executor, David Paul Grimm, as he shall be aware of my general wishes in this regard.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this the 27 day of Jan., 1993.
