Signs and all items pertaining to sales shall not be considered Common Elements and shall remain the property, of Declarant.

(b) As long as any Lot belonging to Declarant remains unsold, neither the Lot Owners, nor the Association, nor the use of the Planned Unit Development property, shall interfere with the sale of any Lot owned by the Declarant. The Declarant shall own such Lot under the same terms and conditions as other Lot Owners, save for the right to sell, rent or lease as contained in this paragraph, including the privilege to vote and the duty to pay assessments on the Lot so held.

(c) The Declarant may waive in writing any power, duty, or office it may have pursuant to the DCC&R.

13. PROFESSIONAL MANAGEMENT.

The Association may enter into a contract for the management of the Planned Unit Development with a professional property management company approved by the Board of Directors. The management contract shall be for an initial term of one (1) year and may be canceled by either party upon ninety (90) days written notice. A decision to establish self management by the Association shall require the prior written consent of sixty-seven percent (67%) of the votes of the Association.

14. NOTICE OF MORTGAGE LIEN OR SUIT.

(a) A Lot Owner shall give notice to the Association of every lien upon his Lot other than for taxes and special assessments, within ten (10) days after the attaching of the lien.

(b) Notice shall be given to the Association of every suit or other proceeding which may affect the title to a Lot within five (5) days after the Lot Owner receives knowledge thereof.

(c) Failure to comply with this Paragraph 15 will not affect the validity of any mortgage instrument or the enforcement thereof at any public or judicial sale.

15. COMPLIANCE DEFAULT AND REMEDIES.

Each Lot Owner shall be governed by, and shall comply with, the terms of this DCC&R, the Charter, By-Laws, and Rules and Regulations adopted pursuant thereto, as any of the same may be amended from time to time. In addition to the remedies provided by the Horizontal Property Act, a default by a Lot Owner shall entitle the Association, acting through the Board of Directors or through the Managing Agent, to the following relief:

(a) Additional Liability. A Lot Owner shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair, or replacement rendered necessary by his act, neglect, or carelessness, or by that of any member of his family, or his or their guests, employees, agents, or lessees, but only to the extent that such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by the Association. Such liability shall include any increase in fire insurance rates occasioned by use, misuse, occupancy, or abandonment of a Lot, or its appurtenances.

(b) Costs and Attorney's Fees. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by a Lot Owner, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be awarded by the court.

(c) No waiver of Rights. Failure of the Association or any Lot Owner to enforce any covenant, restriction or other provision of the Horizontal Property Act, this DCC&R, the Charter, the By-laws, or the Rules and Regulations adopted pursuant thereto, shall not constitute a waiver of the right to do so thereafter. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association or any Lot Owner pursuant to the terms of the Horizontal Property Act, this DCC&R, the By-laws or Rules and Regulations of the Association shall be deemed to be cumulative and the exercise of any one or more thereof shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude the party exercising such other privileges as may be granted to such party by the Horizontal Property Act, the instruments above named, or at law or equity.

(d) Abating and Enjoining Violations. The violation of any provisions of the DCC&R and the Bylaws, or any restriction, condition or regulation adopted by the Board of Directors, or the breach of any covenant or provision herein contained, shall give the Board of Directors or its Managing Agent the right, in addition to any other rights provided for in this DCC&R:

(1) To enter (either peaceably or forcible) without liability to such Lot Owner for such entry) upon the Lot, or any portion of the Lot upon which or as to which such violation or breach exists, and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Lot Owner, any structure, thing or condition that may exist thereon contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof, and the Board of Directors, or its employees or agents, shall not thereby be deemed guilty in any manner of trespass; or

(2) to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any breach or

(3) to take possession (either peaceably or forcibly without liability to such Lot Owner for such entry) of such Lot Owner's interest in the Land and to maintain an action for possession of such Lot in the manner provided by law.

(e) Legal Proceedings, Any violation of the provisions of the Horizontal Property Act, this DCC&R, the By-laws, or the Rules and Regulations adopted pursuant thereto, shall be grounds for relief including, but not limited to, an action for money damages, injunctive relief, specific performance, foreclosure of the lien for payment of all assessments, or sale of the Lot pursuant to subparagraph (f) hereof. All expenses of the Association incurred in connection with any such actions or proceedings, including court costs, attorney's fees, all damages and interest thereon at the highest rate allowed by applicable law, shall be assessed against such defaulting Lot Owner and shall be deemed part of his respective share of the Common Expenses. The Association shall have a lien for all of the same upon the Lot and its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements, upon all of the Lot Owner's additions and improvements thereto and upon all of his personal property in his Lot or located elsewhere on the land. Such lien shall be subordinate to the lien of a recorded first mortgage or deed of trust on the Lot. In the event of any such default by a Lot Owner, the Board of Directors and the Managing Agent, if so authorized by the Board of Directors, shall have the authority to correct such default, and to do whatever may be necessary for such purpose. All expenses incurred in connection therewith shall be charged to and assessed against such defaulting Lot Owner.

(f) Judicial Sale. If any violation by a Lot Owner (or other occupant of a Lot) continues or occurs repeatedly during any ten (10) day period after notice of such violation from the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors shall have the power to terminate such Lot Owner's rights as a Lot Owner. The Board of Directors shall issue a written notice to such defaulting Lot Owner terminating his right to continue to occupy, use or control his Lot. Thereafter, the Board of Directors shall file an action seeking a decree terminating such Lot Owner's right to occupy, use or control his Lot, and ordering that all right, title and interest of such defaulting Lot Owner in his Lot and in the Common Elements be sold at a judicial sale. The judicial sale shall be held upon such notice and terms as the Court shall determine, except that the court shall enjoin the defaulting Lot Owner from reacquiring his interest at the sale. Such judicial sale shall be subject to the lien of any existing deed of trust or mortgage. The proceeds of any such judicial sale shall first be paid to discharge court costs, court reporter charges, reasonable attorney's fees and all other expenses of the proceeding and sale, and all such items shall be taxed against said defaulting Lot Owner in said decree. Any balance of proceeds, after satisfaction of such charges and any unpaid assessments hereunder, or any liens, shall be paid to said defaulting Lot Owner. Upon the confirmation of such sale, the purchaser shall thereupon be entitled to a deed to the Lot and the Lot Owner's corresponding percentage of ownership in the Common Elements, and to immediate possession of the Lot sold and may apply to the court for a writ of assistance for the purpose of acquiring such possession. It shall be a condition of any such sale, and the decree shall so provide, that the purchaser shall take the interest in such Lot and the Common Elements subject to this DCC&R. Nothing in this subparagraph (f) shall be construed to limit or abrogate any other right of the Association in the event of a default or violation by a Lot Owner as is otherwise provided herein. Nor shall the Association be obligated to pursue this remedy of judicial foreclosure.

(g) Sale for Non-payment of Assessments. Notwithstanding any term or provision of this Paragraph 15, the Association shall obtain the written consent of a majority of the votes of the Board of Directors prior to the Association's exercise of any of the remedies provided in this Paragraph 15 to terminate the rights of any Lot Owner to occupy, use or control the Lot owned by him, except that in the case of the sale of a Lot for non-payment of assessments no such consent shall be required.

16. LEASE AND TRANSFER OF A LOT: NOTICE TO ASSOCIATION.

(a) Notice of Transfer or lease of Lot. Whenever a Lot Owner shall sell, lease, give or otherwise transfer his Lot, or any interest therein, such Lot Owner shall give the Association written notice within thirty (30) days (before or after closing) of the transfer, which notice shall briefly describe the transfer and shall state the name and address of the transferee or lessee. Also, the Lot Owner must provide the Association with a copy of the fully executed lease entered into with the Lessee of said Lot.

(b) Miscellaneous.

(1) All notices referred to or required under this Paragraph 16 shall be given in writing to the management company.

(2) The Board may adopt rules and regulations, from time to time, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Paragraph 16, for the purpose of implementing and effectuating said provisions.

(3) If any transfer or lease of a Lot is made or attempted without complying with the provisions of this Paragraph 16, such transfer or lease shall be subject to each and all of the rights and options of, and remedies and actions available to, the Association hereunder and otherwise.

17. ASSOCIATION'S RIGHT TO PURCHASE AT A FORECLOSURE SALE.

(a) The Board shall have the power and authority to purchase, on behalf of the Association, any Lot, or interest therein, at a sale pursuant to this DCC&R, a mortgage foreclosure, a foreclosure of the lien for Common Expenses under the Horizontal Property Act, or an order or direction of a court, or at any other involuntary sale, upon the consent or approval of Lot Owners owning not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the total ownership of the Common Elements.

(b) The Board of Directors shall have authority to make special assessments proportionately among the respective Lot Owners, and such other financing arrangements as the Board of Directors may deem desirable, in order to close and consummate the purchase of a Lot, by the Association. However, no such financing arrangement may be secured by an encumbrance on any interest in property other than the Lot to be purchased and such Lot's appurtenant interest in the Common Elements

(c) The Association shall hold or lease any Lot, pursuant to the terms hereof, in the name of the Association, or a nominee thereof delegated by the Board of Directors, for the benefit of all Lot Owners. The Board of Directors shall have authority at any time to sell, lease or sublease said Lot on behalf of the Association upon such terms as the Board shall deem desirable, but in no event shall a Lot be sold for less than the amount paid by the Association to purchase the Lot unless Lot Owners owning not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the Common Elements first authorize the sale for such lesser amount.

18. AMENDMENTS

This DCC&R may be amended in the following manner:

(a) Notice of the subject matter of a proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of any meeting of the Association at which a proposed amendment is considered.

(b) A resolution adopting a proposed amendment may be proposed by either the Board of Directors or by the Members of the Association. Directors and Members not present in person or by proxy at the meetings in which the amendment is considered may express their approval in writing, providing such approval is delivered to the secretary at or prior to the meeting. Such approval must be by sixty seven percent (67%) of the eligible votes of the Association. However, except as is otherwise provided in this section, or the Declarant may amend this DCC&R, at its sole discretion, until it has conveyed the thirty-three (33) Lots.

(c) Any amendment which would prohibit the leasing of Lots shall require the approval of sixth-seven percent (67%) of the votes of the eligible membership of the Association.

(d) The power of the Declarant to amend the DCC&R and Bylaws may be used to correct clerical errors and make other clarifications and to adjust boundary lines where necessary for clarification or to reflect accurate surveys. Notwithstanding this provision, the Declarant may amend the DCC&R and Bylaws in any manner he decides, at its sole discretion as provided herein. Amendment shall be accomplished by filing an amendment of record in the Register's Office of Davidson County Tennessee.

(e) The vote of the Members of the Association shall be necessary to approve a proposed amendment, except as is otherwise set forth in this DCC&R by a positive vote of 67% of the Members, unless a higher percentage vote is required elsewhere in this DCC&R, to approve any amendment which would materially effect or change:

(i) the voting rights of Lot Owners;
(ii) the method of assessment of common expenses or the priority of the lien of the Association for unpaid assessments:
(iii) the requirement of a reserve fund for the repair or replacement of the Common Elements;
(iv) the allocation of responsibility for maintenance or repair of the Common Elements or Lots;
(v) the percentage ownership interest in the Common Elements allocated to each Lot, or the rights of Lot Owners to use the Common Elements;

(f) No amendment shall discriminate against any Lot Owner, or against any Lot or class or group of Lots, unless the Lot Owners so affected shall consent. No amendment shall change any Lot, nor the share of the Common Elements appurtenant to it, nor increase the Lot Owner's share of the Common Expenses, unless such Lot Owner and all record owners of liens thereon, shall join in the execution of the amendment.

(g) A copy of each amendment shall be certified by the President and Secretary of the Association as having been duly adopted and shall be effective when recorded in the Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee.
