For and in Consideration of the sum of SEVENTY-TWO THOUSAND AND FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS and other good and valuable consideration (the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged), We, Cynthia Lynn Strong, Robert Dwayne Duke and Brian Keith Duke, have bargained and sold, and by these presents do transfer and convey to Deer Lake Retirement Association, Inc., a Tennessee nonprofit corporation, its successors and assigns, a certain tract or parcel of land in the County of Davidson, State of Tennessee, described as follows:

Unit No. 317 in Deer Lake Retirement Community, a horizontal property regime, as shown on the Plat of Deer Lake Retirement Community recorded in Book 5050, Pages 28 and 29, and as amended in Book 5050, Pages 62 and 63, and in Book 5298, page 717, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee, and described in a Master Deed recorded in Book 5097, Pages 529 through 539 and in Bylaws of Deer Lake Retirement Association, Inc., of record in Book 7556, Page 354, Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee, to which reference is hereby made. The easements, restrictive covenants, conditions and regulations imposed upon and relating to the property, apartment owners and tenants of Deer Lake Retirement Community contained in the aforesaid Master Deed, Bylaws and the Rules and Regulations adopted pursuant to the Bylaws are incorporated in this deed by reference and made a part hereof the same as though copied herein verbatim. The purchasers by acceptance hereof expressly assume and agree to be bound by and comply with all of the covenants, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in the aforesaid documents including but not limited to the obligation to pay monthly assessments for the maintenance and operation of Deer Lake Retirement Community in accordance with the Master Deed and Bylaws. The purchasers further specifically acknowledge that their right to transfer ownership of the above described apartment unit or to lease said unit is subject to certain options and restrictions contained in the Master Deed and Bylaws.

Being the same property conveyed to Barbara A. Young, unmarried, by Warranty Deed of record as Instrument Number 20041222-0152096, said Register's Office. Barbara A. Young died leaving no personal estate to be administered. However, the will of Barbara Ann Young was admitted to probate without the necessity of a formal estate administration in the Seventh Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, Probate Division, Docket No. 09 P-324. In Article II, paragraph 3 of her will, Ms. Young gave all of the the residuary of her estate in equal shares to her children Cynthia Lynn Strong, Robert Dwayne Duke and Brian Keith Duke. Barbara A. Young and Barbara Ann Young are one and the same person and was the Grantee in the previous conveyance and the decedent in the above action.

This is improved property, known as 317 Deer Lake Drive, Nashville, Tennessee 37221.

To have and to hold the above described tract or parcel of land, with the appurtenances, estate, title and interest thereto belonging to Deer Lake Retirement Association, Inc., its successors and assigns, forever.

Grantors represent to Deer Lake Retirement Association, Inc., that they are lawfully seized and possessed of the above described land in fee simple; have a good right to convey it, and the same is unencumbered, except as described herein.

Grantors represent to Deer Lake Retirement Association, Inc., that this property has not been used as marital property and no marital rights of any kind have attached to this property and that none of the Grantors has used the property as her or his residence.

There were and are no debts or claims against the estate of Barbara A. Young which are or would be payable from the real property described above, whether or not such claims have been filed in the court of Davidson County, Tennessee. There were and are no federal, state, or local taxes, including death taxes on the estate of Barbara A. Young which constitute a claim or lien against the property described above. There were and are no Tennessee inheritance taxes due by reason of the death of Barbara A. Young which are payable from the real property described above.

Grantors binds themselves, their successors, assigns, heirs and representatives, to warrant and forever defend the title to the above described land to Deer Lake Retirement Association, Inc., its successors and assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons.

Witness this 11 day of May, 2009.
