Last Will and Testament

OPAL G. TAYES

I, OPAL G. TAYES, of Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, hereby make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils previously made by me.

I.

I desire that all my just debts and funeral expense and cost of administration be paid as soon as practical after my death.

II.

I hereby give and bequeath to Jodie R. Spoon, my grand-daughter, my curio cabinet and Coo-Coo clock. I hereby give and bequeath to my grand-daughter, Shelley Corlew, a curio cabinet. I hereby give and bequeath to my son, Michael E. Tayes, my grand-father clock and flat silver ware. I hereby give and bequeath to my daughter, Patricia Tayes Carr, my good china set and entertainment center.

III.

I hereby give, bequeath and devise all the rest and remainder, including realty, personalty and cash, equally to my two children, Michael E. Tayes and Patricia Tayes Carr, per stirpes and not per capita.

IV.

I hereby appoint Patricia Tayes Carr, my daughter, as Executrix of this my Will and I direct that no bond shall be required of her. The personal property can be divided equally between the two children named above, or if they cannot agree, then my Executrix may sell same in any manner she may desire, and divide the cash between the two of them. The realty may be sold and the cash divided equally between the two said children, such sale to be in any manner my Executrix may select. If either of the two children should desire to purchase same, then they may do so with the consent of the other one, at the then appraised price of said realty. Such realty may be sold, if necessary, without Court
