RICHARD CECIL DICKERSON

I, Richard Cecil Dickerson, of the County of Wake and State of North Carolina, being over the age of eighteen (18) years and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby revoke any and all Wills and Codicils heretofore made by me, and do make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

Payment of Debts. I direct my Executor to pay all lawful debts which become payable upon or by reason of my death. In addition to paying lawful debts due at the time of and arising by virtue of my death, I direct my Executor to pay all of my unpaid charitable pledges whether or not the same are enforceable obligations. Debts maturing after the date of my death secured by real property may be paid or left outstanding whichever is in the best interest of my estate, as determined in the absolute discretion of my Executor.

ARTICLE II

Payment of Taxes. I direct that all estate and inheritance taxes and other taxes in the general nature thereof which have become due and payable upon or by reason of my death with respect to any property passing by or under the terms of this Will be paid by my Executor as soon as practicable out of my estate. Any right of reimbursement is hereby waived, except that my Executor shall seek reimbursement for any such taxes which are payable with respect to any property over which I have a power of appointment, to the extent that my Executor or my estate is entitled by law or by the provisions of the instrument creating such power.

ARTICLE III

Bequest and Devise of Entire Estate. I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, Anna Rae Dickerson, if she shall survive me by sixty (60) days, my entire estate, real, personal, and mixed, of every kind and character and wherever situate, including any property over which I may have power of appointment, absolutely and in fee simple.

ARTICLE IV

Disclaimer Provision. If my wife, Anna Rae Dickerson, shall survive me, but for longer range estate or inheritance tax advantage or other reasons, shall disclaim some part or all of the bequest in Article III above, then in that event the portion of my estate so disclaimed shall be paid and delivered over to my children in equal shares; provided, however, that the issue of any then deceased child shall stand and take in the place of his or her parent, per stirpes.

ARTICLE V

Trust Provision. If my wife, Anna Rae Dickerson, shall not survive me by sixty (60) days:

A. I give and bequeath all of my household furniture, utensils, pictures, books, silverware, jewelry, linens, clothings and other articles of use or ornament in or about my home to my surviving children in equal shares; provided, however, that the issue of any then deceased child shall stand and take in the place of his or her parent, per stirpes. among themselves, my executor shall make such division among them, the decision of my executor to be in all respects binding upon my children and their issue. I request that my executor and my children and their issue abide by any memorandum by me directing the disposition of this property or any part thereof. This request is precatory and not mandatory. If any beneficiary hereunder is a minor, my executor may distribute such minor's share to such minor or for such minor's use to any person with whom such minor is residing or who has the care or control of such minor without further responsibility and the receipt of the person to whom it is distributed shall be a complete discharge of my executor.

B. I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate unto my Trustee, to be held in trust by it for the following uses and purposes:

(1) From the principal so added to, the Trustee shall pay to or for any child of mine from income and/or principal of said Trust such amounts and at such times as to it shall seem reasonably necessary for that child's support, care and education. The Trustee need not equalize distributions among my children, but may give consideration to my desire that the trust estate be utilized for the primary purposes of support and education, affording substantially equal educational opportunities for each of my children, and to defray, in whole or in part, the extraordinary expense of any one or more of my children resulting from accident, illness, or infirmity, rather than the preservation of principal.

(2) When my youngest living child reaches age twenty-five, the then trust assets shall be paid and delivered over, in equal shares, to my children (the issue of any then

(3) Payments under (1) above to children prior to their twenty-third birthday shall not be charged as advances upon eventual distribution of this trust; payment to or for a child subsequent to his twenty-third birthday shall be charged as advances.

(4) No person dealing with the Trustee shall be obliged to inquire as to its powers or to see to the application of any money or property delivered to it. The Trustee shall not be required to obtain authority or approval of any court in the exercise of any power conferred upon hereunder.

(5) All income accrued, due but uncollected, and/or on hand in any trust under this Article at the death of a former income beneficiary shall be payable to the succeeding beneficiary or remainderman.

(6) Whenever and as often as any beneficiary of the trust to whom payments are herein directed to be made shall be under a legal disability, or, in the sole judgment of the Trustee, shall otherwise be unable to apply such payments to his or her own best interest and advantage, the Trustee may make all or any portion of such payments by expending the same for the benefit of the beneficiary, or by making payments to the legal guardian or conservator of such beneficiary, or to a relative of such beneficiary to be expended for the beneficiary's benefit; and the decision of the Trustee in each such case shall be binding upon all beneficiaries hereunder.

ARTICLE VI

No Lineal Descendants. If my wife, Anna Rae Dickerson, predeceases me and I die without lineal descendants, I give, devise and bequeath the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, of every kind and character, and wherever situate, as follows:

I give and devise, in fee simple, all my interest in and title to the following described real property to my wife's brother, Royce Joseph Kahanek of 1043 Mountain Drive, Oak Harbor, Washington, and my wife's sister, Delores Agnes Palrang of Caldwell, Idaho in equal shares; provided, however that if either my wife's brother or sister is deceased, then the issue of my wife's deceased brother or sister shall stand and take in the place of his or her parent, per stirpes.

ARTICLE VII

Payment to Executor. The Trustee shall have full authority and power to pay to the Executor upon written request of the Executor, such sum or sums out of my trust estate as such Executor shall, in its sole discretion, determine to be necessary for the purpose of enabling it to pay all or any part of my legal debts, funeral expenses, the costs of administration of my estate, and the estate and inheritance taxes payable upon or by reason of my death.

Such power may be exercised independently and without prior or subsequent approval of any court or judicial authority, and no person dealing with my said Executor or Trustee shall be required to inquire into the propriety of his actions.

Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing and subject to North Carolina General Statutes Section 32-26, I hereby grant to my Executor and Trustee all the powers set forth in North Carolina General Statutes Section 32-27, and these powers are hereby incorporated by reference.
