ARTICLE II

PAYMENT OF DEBTS, EXPENSES AND TAXES

2.1. I direct that all of my just and enforceable debts, (except debts secured by mortgages or other security instruments, which may be paid off or retained in the discretion of my Executor), including funeral and testamentary expenses and expenses of my last illness, be paid as soon as may be convenient after my death. I further direct that all estate, inheritance and other taxes of the same nature (except any generation-skipping taxes imposed by the Internal Revenue Code or by any state) which are payable because of my death, including any interest or penalties thereon, with respect to the property comprising my estate for such tax purposes, whether or not such property passes under this Will and whether such taxes are payable by my estate or by any recipient or beneficiary of any such property, shall be paid entirely out of my residuary estate as an expense of administration and without apportionment, and with no right of reimbursement from any recipient or beneficiary of any such property. No part of said debts, expenses and taxes shall be charged against or paid out of any part of my estate so as to render taxable any amounts which otherwise qualify for the marital deduction.

2.2. My Executor is specifically authorized, in my Executor's discretion, to apply the proceeds from any insurance policies on my life which are payable to my estate in paying debts, expenses of administration and taxes, notwithstanding the provisions of any state law to the contrary; provided, however, that this provision shall not be construed so as to make the proceeds of any insurance subject to debts, taxes or expenses, or to waive the exemption as provided in Tennessee Code Annotated Section 56-7-201, or successor provisions.

3.1. I specifically give and bequeath the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) each to my surviving son and step-sons, Thomas M. Bowling, Richard N. Bowling, Jerry A. Bowling, and Kevin E. Bowling.

3.2 In the event that I shall prepare a handwritten list directing the distribution of certain items of a purely personal and/or sentimental nature to be given to designated individuals, and in the further event that said handwritten list shall be found or discovered with my Will; then, I direct my Executor to utilize and follow said list in the distribution of any specific bequests as set forth therein.

ARTICLE IV

KATHLEEN L. BOWLING SUPPLEMENTAL NEEDS TRUST

4.1. I direct that all of the rest, residue and remainder of my property (whether real, personal and/or mixed) I may own at the time of my death shall be given to my Trustee, hereinabove named, solely in such capacity to be held, administered and distributed in the Trust hereby created to be known as the KATHLEEN L. BOWLING SUPPLEMENTAL NEEDS TRUST, upon the uses and trusts hereinafter set out. The term "Beneficiary" as used herein shall refer to my daughter, Kathleen L. Bowling, who is a disabled individual and has special needs.

4.3. I specifically direct that the Beneficiary shall have use and possession of any home I own at the time of my death, and all content and/or possessions located within said residence shall remain therein for the sole use and benefit of the Beneficiary until her death, or she no longer wishes to reside within said home or is able to reside within said home independently; and, the Beneficiary shall have possession of any automobile I own at the time of my death to use for her transportation needs provided she is the holder of a valid driver's licence at the time of my death, or she may elect to store such vehicle in the garage until she acquires a valid driver's license.

Further, I direct the Trustee shall deposit One Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($1,200.00) each month from the Trust into a checking account for the Beneficiary to use in order to defray her living expenses. The Trustee shall pay from the Trust funds all costs associated with the residence (i.e. insurance, property taxes, heating and air maintenance fees, annual termite protection fees, appliance replacement and/or repairs, exterior and interior replacement and/or repair, and the like), all insurance and reasonable maintenance costs associated with the automobile being utilized by the Beneficiary, preparation of all tax returns and payment of taxes due, medical insurance premiums, and any and all other expenses incurred by the Beneficiary which exceed her normal, everyday living expenses.

4.4. The intent and purpose of this Trust is to provide a discretionary, spendthrift trust to supplement (but not supplant) public resources and benefits when such public resources and benefits are unavailable or insufficient to provide for the special needs of the Beneficiary. Therefore, the Trustee shall manage and distribute the principal and income of the Trust so as to not threaten such income, support funds, assets, benefits, insurance or services to which the Beneficiary might be entitled or for which he might become eligible as a result of his medical problems and disabilities from any local, state, or federal agency, or through any public or private profit or non-profit corporation or agency.

4.5. Other property may be added to this Trust by any person or source, including by will, by gift, or from insurance proceeds, or otherwise, at any time, provided that it does not interfere with the purposes of the Trust and that it is accepted by the Trustee. The assets of the Trust may from time to time include property other than cash as more fully provided below.

4.6. The residuary referred to above and the right to receive additional funds or assets shall constitute the trust estate and shall be held, administered, and distributed according to this instrument.

4.7. No portion of the principal or income of this Trust shall at any time become available to the Beneficiary, be placed in his possession, or come within the control of any Guardian or Conservator, except as otherwise provided herein. No part of the principal or income of the Trust shall be construed to be part of the Beneficiary's estate or be subject to the claims of voluntary or involuntary creditors for the provision of care and services, including residential care, by any public entity, office, department, or agency of any state, or of the United States of America, except as otherwise provided in this instrument. This Trust shall not be subject to any creditor's claim or to legal process. This includes claims by voluntary or involuntary creditors for the provision of care and services, including, but not limited to, residential care by any public body or by private health insurance. The assets of this Trust shall not be subject to garnishment, attachment, levy, or any other judicial process instituted by any creditor of the Beneficiary, nor shall any asset of this Trust be an asset in any future bankruptcy of the Beneficiary. No interest in this Trust shall be anticipated, assigned, alienated or encumbered through any process whatsoever.

4.8. Subject to the express purpose of the Trust as set forth above, the Trustee shall make whatever payment, in her unlimited discretion, the Trustee deems to be appropriate. For example, the Trustee may use money from the Trust to pay for the Beneficiary's Special Needs. The Trustee may decide in her unlimited discretion, subject to the purposes of this Trust, what those Special Needs may be and make payments without any court approval.

4.9. The phrase "special needs" means the requisites for maintaining the Beneficiary's good health, safety, and welfare when such requisites cannot be provided by any public agency, office, or department of any state, or of the United States of America. For example, the Trustee could, in her discretion, decide to pay expenses such as those for rehabilitation, developmental evaluation, special education, vocational training and placement, case management services, counseling, emotional or behavioral therapy, special equipment, supervision or companion services, travel and vacation expenses, and facilities determined to be reasonably necessary when public programs are not available to pay for such expenses.

4.9.1. Expenses for the Beneficiary's special needs reasonably include, but are not limited to, the following kinds of expenses:

(a) special equipment;
(b) training, educational and treatment programs;
(c) medical and dental expenses;
(d) travel needs;
(e) transportation; and
(f) hygiene care, including hair care.

4.9.2. "Special needs" do not include payments for food, clothing or shelter for the Beneficiary, unless the applicable law is modified to allow payment for such expenditures, while simultaneously retaining the Beneficiary's eligibility for public assistance benefits.

4.9.3. This is not a trust for the support or maintenance of the Beneficiary.

4.9.4. The funds of the Trust may be used as an emergency or backup fund secondary to available public resources.

4.9.5. No part of the principal of the Trust shall be used to supplant or replace any public assistance benefits of any county, state, federal or governmental agency that serves persons with disabilities that are the same or similar to the impairments of the Beneficiary. The Trustee shall not make any disbursement for the purpose of repayment of any amounts expended by the federal and/or state governments for or on behalf of the Beneficiary.

4.9.6. If at any time the Trustee, in her unlimited discretion, determines that it is desirable to encroach upon the principal and/or income of the Trust to fulfill the purpose of this Trust, the Trustee is hereby authorized to use on behalf of the Beneficiary so much of the principal and/or income of the Trust as the Trustee, in her sole and unlimited discretion, may determine is necessary to carry out the provisions of this Trust.

4.9.7. The Trustee, in her sole and unlimited discretion, may make payments from this Trust in any of the following ways, provided such payment does not jeopardize the Beneficiary's right to public assistance:

a. to the Guardian or Conservator of the Beneficiary;
b. to a relative or friend who is caring for the Beneficiary; or
c. to persons, corporations or other entities for the benefit of the Beneficiary.

Gertrude Olsen Bowling

4.9.8. Any income not distributed by the Trustee shall be accumulated and added to the principal of the Trust. The Trustee may invest in and hold property even if the property does not produce income, subject to the purpose as set forth above.

4.9.9. The Beneficiary shall have no interest in either the corpus or income of this Trust, except as provided herein, and the Beneficiary shall have no power to compel distribution or any other act by the Trustee.

4.9.10. This Trust shall continue until the death of the Beneficiary subject to the general terms and conditions contained in this instrument.

4.9.11. The Trustee shall have discretion to terminate the Trust if the following circumstances occur: (I) if the fair market value of the principal of the Trust becomes so low, in relation to the cost of administration, that continued administration will defeat or substantially impair the purpose of the Trust; (ii) if the objective of providing supplemental services to the Beneficiary over and above benefits and services for which he would otherwise be eligible is substantially impaired; (iii) if the principal or income of the Trust, as a result of any action, decision, ruling, or omission of any person, agency, or entity other than a Trustee or the Beneficiary of this Trust, results in a substantial displacement by trust funds of governmental assistance, benefits, or services, which have been or otherwise would be available to the Beneficiary, then the Trustee may petition the Court having jurisdiction over this Trust for authority to make disbursements from this Trust without the limitations otherwise set forth in this Trust, for reasonable expenses of food, shelter, and clothing, and for expenses of institutional care, home health care, and all other medical care, therapies, treatment, attendant care, nursing home care, custodial care, vocational rehabilitation, occupational therapy, and physical therapy without regard to whether such expenses might be covered by Medicaid, Medicare, or any other program of government assistance. In the alternative, the Trustee may petition the Court for authority to distribute the Trust to the Beneficiary outright, or to the Guardian or Conservator of the Beneficiary.

4.9.12. Upon the death of the Beneficiary, the Trustee shall pay from the principal and undistributed income of the Trust those amounts which are required by the law then applicable to the Trust. If such payments do not consume the entire principal and undistributed income of the Trust, then the Trustee, in her sole and absolute discretion, may pay any part of the Beneficiary's expenses of last illness, funeral and burial expenses, administration and probate expenses, and taxes, or any other expenses associated with the Beneficiary's death.

4.9.13. Upon the termination of this Trust, and after payment or provision has been made for expenses of administration and other obligations payable by the Trust, the remaining amount in the Trust at the time of termination shall be distributed to my son, Thomas M. Bowling,.

4.9.14. If any provision or purpose of the Trust shall be or shall become illegal or impractical, the remaining provisions and purposes, so far as possible and reasonable, shall remain effective and shall be fulfilled. In addition, the Trustee may seek Court instructions for the purpose of fulfilling as nearly as possible what is, or would be, the Testator's intention with respect to those provisions deemed to be illegal or impractical. If consistent with the intent of the Trust, the Trustee may ask the Court to amend this document so that it conforms to the regulations and policies that are approved by any governing body or agency relating to Supplemental Security Income benefits, Medicaid benefits or any similar successor programs.

4.9.15. The Trustee may not use the Trust for her own benefit, and she may not use the Trust for any purpose not allowed by this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

SPENDTHRIFT PROVISIONS

5.1. I direct that no part of any Trust or Trust Share herein created, nor the income therefrom, is to be subject to execution or other legal process for any obligation of any beneficiary or subject to the claims of creditors of any beneficiary in any manner, nor shall any beneficiary have the power to sell or mortgage or encumber same, or any part thereof, nor anticipate the same, nor any part thereof, by assignment or otherwise. Likewise, no fiduciary hereunder shall be required to exercise any discretion herein granted to satisfy any obligation of any beneficiary to any third party.

ARTICLE VI

ALLOCATIONS BY FIDUCIARY

6.1. At anytime when it shall become necessary to divide assets between any of the beneficiaries herein named, or within any Trust or Trust Share created herein, or to distribute any of said assets, such division or distribution shall be made in such manner as the Executor or Trustee, as the case may be, deems proper and may be made in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind. The judgment of the Executor or Trustee, as the case may be, on the relative value of assets shall be binding and conclusive on all parties interested. Further, in making distribution of assets the Executor or Trustee, as the case may be, shall not be required to distribute a particular asset pro rata to all beneficiaries entitled to receive a distribution, and the Executor or Trustee, as the case may be, may make division and distribution of assets without regard to the basis of such assets for Federal or State income tax purposes.

ARTICLE VII

ABSOLUTE END OF TRUST

7.1. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no Trust or Trust Share herein created shall continue beyond the term as allowed by the Tennessee Uniform Statutory Rule Against Perpetuities, Section 66-1-201, et seq. Tennessee Code Annotated, or any successor provisions, or other applicable provisions of the law, and any such Trust or Trust Share shall be subject to the provisions of such statute, and applicable law.

ARTICLE VIII

PROVISIONS FOR COMMON DISASTER

8.1. In the event any beneficiary and I shall die simultaneously or under circumstances which make it difficult to determine which of us died first, I direct that the beneficiary shall be deemed to have predeceased me for the purposes of this Will, and I direct further that the provisions of this Will be construed upon that assumption, irrespective of any provision of law establishing a contrary presumption or requiring survivorship for a fixed period as a condition of taking property by inheritance.

ARTICLE IX

CHANGE OF TRUSTEE

9.1. A successor or substitute Trustee shall not be required to make bond unless bond is required by the person or persons making the appointment. Such successor or substitute Trustee shall by virtue of its appointment succeed to all the rights, powers and duties conferred and imposed upon the Trustee herein named, other than the power to name a successor Trustee.

9.2. Anything to the contrary in this or any other Article of this Will notwithstanding, no person shall be named as a Trustee if the effect would be to include some or all of such Trust in such Trustee's estate.

ARTICLE X

POWERS OF FIDUCIARIES

10.1. My Executor and Trustee shall have all the powers enumerated in Section 35-50-110, Tennessee Code Annotated, and the introductory paragraph and all subparagraphs thereof, which, to the extent not inconsistent with the express provisions hereof, are hereby incorporated herein by reference as fully as though copied herein verbatim, except that subparagraphs 1 through 4 of such Section shall apply only to my Executor.

10.2. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the beneficiaries of any Trust or Trust Share (or their guardians in the case of minor beneficiaries) shall have the power to require the Trustee to convert property which is unproductive of income to income-producing property within a reasonable time.

10.3. I hereby authorize my Executor, in such Executor's discretion, within nine (9) months after the date of the transfer which created an interest in me, to disclaim in whole or in part any bequest or devise or any interest in any Trust provided for my benefit under the Will of any person or under any trust established for my benefit at any time.

Gertrude Olsen Bowling

10.4. I recognize that my Executor or a Trustee may not be a professional fiduciary and in order to induce such person to serve in such capacity, I hereby direct that the assets of the Estate, and any Trust of which such person is a Trustee, be used to indemnify and hold my Executor, or such Trustee, harmless with respect to any and all acts, except for fraud or bad faith of such person, in connection with: (I) the administration of my Estate, or any Trust or Trust Share held hereunder or (ii) the investment of the assets with respect to my Estate, or any Trust or Trust Share.

10.5. My Executor and any Trustee shall have the power to hire persons, including accountants, attorneys, auditors, investment advisors, or other agents even if they are associated or affiliated with my Executor or a Trustee to advise or assist my Executor or a Trustee in the performance of administrative duties. This power shall include, but not be limited to, attorneys who may be partners of or associates with my Executor or a Trustee in the practice of law. My Executor and Trustee are entitled to reasonable compensation for the performance of their duties.

10.6. Whenever under this Will, any fiduciary, including, but not limited to an Executor or Trustee, is granted the right to take action in such fiduciary's "discretion", then, such "discretion" shall mean the discretion of such fiduciary, except as limited by the specific language of this document and specific provisions of law applicable to such decisions. It is my intention that the term "discretion" as used herein shall be interpreted as broadly as possible, except as limited by the specific language of this document and specific provisions of law applicable to such decisions.

10.7. The powers granted to an Executor or Trustee under this Will shall not constitute a general power of appointment. No fiduciary shall have the right to participate in any decision for the benefit of such fiduciary, the creditors of such fiduciary, the estate of such fiduciary, the creditors of the estate of such fiduciary or to satisfy the legal obligation of such fiduciary.

ARTICLE XI

WAIVER OF FILINGS

11.1. I hereby waive the requirement that my Executor file an inventory or accounting of my estate with the court having probate jurisdiction over my estate. This waiver shall include, but not be limited to, the inventory as required by Tennessee Code Annotated Section 30-2-301, and the accounting as required by Tennessee Code Annotated Section 30-2-601, or any amendments or successors to such sections.

ARTICLE XII

ADMINISTRATION OF REAL PROPERTY

12.1. All real property in which I may have an interest at the time of my death shall be deemed to be part of my probate estate for the purposes of administering my estate, and as such, shall be subject to the control of my Executor during the administration of my estate; provided, however, that the provisions of this Article shall not have the effect of revoking or varying any written agreement entered into during my lifetime as to the ownership, use, descent or rights in or to, any real property.
