BARBARA FAYE KING

I, Barbara Faye King, of Davidson County, Tennessee being of sound and disposing mind, do hereby make, publish and declare the following to be my Last Will and Testament, revoking all previous will and codicils made by me.

I. I appoint my daughter Shana Ann King as personal representative of my will. No bond or other security of any kind shall be required of any personal representative appointed in this will. My personal representative, whether original, substitute or successor, shall hereafter also be referred to as my "executor".

II. I direct that my executor pay all of my funeral expenses, all State and federal estate, inheritance and succession taxes, administration costs and all of my debts subject to statute of limitations, except mortgage notes secured by real estate, as soon as practical.

Copy

II. I give, devise and bequeath all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, of whatever kind and character, and wherever located, to my daughter.

III. My executor shall not be required to file an inventory or perform an accounting of my estate.

V. If any person, whether or not related to me by blood or in any way, shall attempt, either directly or indirectly, to set aside the probate of my will or oppose any of the provisions hereof, and such person shall establish a right to any portion of my estate, then I give and bequeath the sum of one dollar ($1.00), only that, and no further interest whatever in my estate to such person.

VI. In the event that any of my property, or all of it, at the time of my death is community property under the laws of any jurisdiction, then my will shall be construed as referring only to my community-property interest therein.

Copy

VII. If any portion of my will shall be held illegal, invalid or otherwise inoperative, it is my intention that all of the other provisions hereof shall continue to be fully effective and operative insofar as is possible and reasonable.
