Last Will and Testament of JAYNE BRUER BLACK

I, JAYNE BRUER BLACK, of Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, do make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills and Codicils that I have made previously.

ITEM ONE: I direct that the costs of administration of my estate, and all lawful debts and funeral expenses be paid by my Executors as soon as practicable after my death. I further direct that my Executors pay out of the property which would otherwise become a part of my residuary estate, all inheritance or other death taxes, including interest and penalties thereon which my be lawfully assessed by reason of my death.

ITEM TWO: Certain of my furniture, household goods, jewelry and personal effects shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of a certain memorandum which I have heretofore written entirely in my own handwriting and signed and will deposit with this Will. If for any reason said memorandum is not found and property identified as such by my Executors within thirty (30) days after the probate of my Will, then all of the aforesaid property shall be equally divided as to the value thereof between my children, Carole Black Paine and Linda Black Riley.

ITEM THREE: All my right, title and interest in the house and lot at 5202 Shenandoah Court, Nashville, Tennessee, or any other real property shared as a residence with my daughter, Linda Black Riley, at the time of my death, I devise to Linda Black Riley, if she shall desire to accept said residence as a portion of her share of my estate in accordance with Item Four. She shall have one year from the date of my death to determine whether she desires to accept said residence as a portion of her share of my estate. During this one year period Linda Black Riley shall have the privilege of living in said residence and enjoying the use of all my furniture and furnishings therein.

THE CHANCERY COURT SEAL TN WILLIAMSON CO.

ITEM FOUR: All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, I give and bequeath to my children, Carole Black Paine and Linda Black Riley, in equal shares as to the value thereof. If, at the time of my death, either of my daughters have predeceased me and a testamentary trust is in existence for the benefit of her child or children, the share to be distributed to her child by representation shall be distributed to the Trustee of said trust for the benefit of such child to be added to the property then held in trust by such trustee and to be held and administered in accordance with the terms of the trust as stated in said testamentary trust instrument as now amended or as from time to time hereafter amended. It is my intention, if either of my daughters have predeceased me, to add said residue of my estate in representative shares to the property constituting the trust estate for the benefit of my daughter's child and to have the same held, managed, controlled and distributed in all respects as an integral part thereof.

ITEM FIVE: I appoint my daughters, Carole Black Paine and Linda Black Riley, Co-Executrices of this my Last Will and Testament. If either of my daughters is unable or unwilling to serve, the remaining daughter shall serve as Executrix. I direct that my Executrices shall not be required to furnish a bond for the faithful performance of their duties in any jurisdiction, any provision to the law to the contrary notwithstanding. if any bond is required by law, no surety shall be required on such bond.

My Executrices shall possess and be vested with the powers specifically enumerated in § 35-50-110, Tennessee Code Annotated, to the extent applicable, including but not limited to the power to sell and convey title to real estate, all of which provisions and powers are incorporated herein by reference as fully as if copied herein verbatim. These powers, as set out in said statute on the date of the execution of this Will are granted, notwithstanding that said statute may be hereafter amended or repealed.

ITEM SIX: Insofar as I am permitted to do so, I waive the filing of an inventory of my estate by my Executrices and authorize the use of a sworn statement and approval by the beneficiaries of the residue of my estate in lieu of a detailed final accounting.
