That this deed of absolute conveyance of title to said property to the grantee named therein in effect as well as in form, and was and is not intended as a mortgage, trust, conveyance or security of any kind, and that possession of said premises has been surrendered to said grantee, or its successors or assigns; that the consideration in the aforesaid deed was a payment to deponent(s) of the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) and other good and valuable consideration by the said grantee, or its successor or assigns, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, together with the full cancellation of all debts, obligations costs and charges heretofore existing under and by virtue of the terms of a certain trust deed (in default) described, executed by Tony C. Hubbert and Vicki M. Hubbert, as Grantor(s) to April Payne, a Resident of Knox County, Tennessee, Trustee, dated August 29, 2000 and recorded in Instrument Number 200008290085158, Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee, and the cancellation of record of said trust deed, which trust deed and the indebtedness secured thereby is now owned by Lender (hereinafter referred to as mortgagee).

That the aforesaid deed of conveyance was made by this deponent(s) as a result of his/her/their request that the said grantee and its successor or assigns accept such deed, and was his/her/their free and voluntary act and that at the time of making said indebtedness represents the fair value of the property so deeded and that said deed was not given as a preference against other creditors of the deponent(s) or either of them and that at the time it was given there were no other person or persons, firm of corporation, other than the grantee of said deed or mortgagee interested, whether directly or indirectly in said premises and that these deponents are solvent and have no other creditors whose rights would be prejudiced by said conveyance, and that deponent(s) is/are not obligated upon any note, bond or other trust, deed, judgment whereby any lien has been created or exists against the premises described in said deed, and the deponents in offering to execute the aforesaid deed to the grantee therein, and in executing same, was not acting under duress, undue influence, misapprehension or misrepresentation by the grantee, and that it was the intention of said deponent(s) as grantor(s) in said deed to convey and by said deed this/these

That the aforesaid deed of conveyance made by this/these deponent(s) was/were executed and delivered with the express understanding that it does not operate even though place of record, to effect such a merger of interest as to extinguish the trust deed lien referred to herein before, and that its receipt by the grantee does not constitute legal delivery and shall be of not binding force or effect whatsoever until such time as the grantee consents to the acceptance of such deed, after approval of title by the grantee. It is the intention of the parties hereto, supported by his/her/their representations and warranties of the deponent(s) that the grantee shall take unencumbered title, and therefore, the vesting of title shall not operate to effect such a merger of interest as to extinguish the trust deed lien, even is a release, satisfaction or cancellation of the lien is filed for priority of any subordinate interest to the aforesaid trust deed lien, which may be outstanding at the time of such vesting of title. The receipt and acceptance of said deed shall in no way restrict the right to the grantee or mortgagee, or their successors in interest from foreclosing the mortgage debt if foreclosure is deemed advisable.

Should it appear that title to the subject property is encumbered, said grantee may execute and deliver to the deponent a Quit Claim Deed re-conveying the deponent all interest in said property which was conveyed by said warranty deed, which deed of re-conveyance shall be filed for record and the deponent(s) hereby appoint(s) the grantee or its agents to accept delivery of and file said Quit Claim Deed for record and in that event the Trust Deed referred to hereinbefore and the note secured and thereby and every obligation and liability there-under shall be in full force and effect the same as though this agreement had never been entered into.

If there are any outstanding or accrued but unfiled insurance claims with respect to the aforementioned real property, the grantors assign any and all right, title and interest in and to said claim or claims to the grantee as part of the consideration for the deed in lieu and release of mortgage.

Hubbert and Vicki M. Hubbert further acknowledge(s) that they have elected to proceed with this Deed-in-Lieu agreement and the transactions contemplated herein in lieu of any other rights or actions that they might pursue with respect to rescission either now or in the future.
