FINAL JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE

The cause having come up for hearing on the 21st day of July, 2009, on the Complaint for Divorce filed by Matthew Adam Patterson, and it appearing that the Defendant has waived appearance and ~~consented to default judgment~~ THE PARTIES HAVING WAIVED SERVICE OF THE AMENDED COMPLAINT FILED ON JULY 1, 2009 AND THE COMPLAINT FILED ON JANUARY 14, 2009, the Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the premises does find:

1. That this Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter and the parties.
2. Defendant is not currently in military service with any of the Armed Forces of the United States.
3. That the parties were lawfully married on 10/01/2001 and that the marriage was registered in Nashville, TN. Irreconcilable differences have since arisen between the parties, and they wish to obtain a divorce from the bonds of matrimony.
4. That the parties have one minor child(ren) as follows:

Name	Date of Birth
Baron Matthew Patterson	11/18/2002

5. The bill for divorce has been on file for at least ninety (90) days.
6. Both parties have fulfilled the requirement of the parent education class required by § 36-6-408 of the Tennessee Code.
7. That the parties have filed a parenting plan which meets all of the requirements of § 36-6-404 of the Tennessee Code, and the court affirmatively finds that the agreement is in the best interests of the minor child(ren). That agreement is ratified, confirmed, and incorporated into this Decree as though fully set forth.

IN THE CIRCUIT/CHANCERY COURT FOR DAVIDSON COUNTY

IN RE The Marriage of:

Matthew Adam Patterson,
Plaintiff,

AND

Carrie Melissa Patterson,
Defendant.

File No: 09D106

MARITAL DISSOLUTION AGREEMENT

This marital dissolution agreement is filed in conjunction with the above-entitled action for divorce with the docket number listed above. This agreement is voluntarily made and entered into by Plaintiff, Matthew Adam Patterson and by Defendant, Carrie Melissa Patterson, in order to settle, determine, and provide for a division of all their property and debts, for alimony, and any other agreed terms relating to the parties' separation and divorce. Plaintiff and Defendant ask the Court to find that the agreement is sufficient and equitable, and that the agreement be ratified, confirmed, and incorporated into the parties' Decree.

1. Division of Property

Plaintiff is awarded the following as his separate property, free of any current and future claim from Defendant:

a. 1997 Toyota Corolla.

b. Any other property and personal effects currently in his possession.

Defendant is awarded the following as her separate property, free of any current and future claim from Plaintiff:

a. 2002 Kia Sportage.

b. Any other property and personal effects currently in her possession.

Copy

The parties own real property located at 241 Bermuda Drive, Nashville TN. This real property shall be divided as follows: The property shall be awarded solely to the wife, and she shall be solely responsible for all encumbrances, maintenance, taxes, insurance, and other expenses thereon.

2. Debts

We agree to the payment of all debts we owe, and agree to hold the other party harmless on these debts as follows:

Each party shall pay all debts incurred by him or her individually from this day forward, including any debts or expenses incurred after the separation and prior to the granting of divorce or dissolution, and indemnify the other party for these debts.

Any outstanding debts or liabilities not disclosed here shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred it, and that party shall hold the other harmless for its payment.

3. Non-Use of Other's Credit

Neither party shall incur any debt or obligation upon the credit of the other. If they do, they shall repay, indemnify, and hold the other harmless as to any such debt or obligation.

4. Spousal Support (Alimony)

Neither party shall pay alimony to the other, now or in the future.

5. Health and Medical Expenses

Each party shall be responsible for his or her own health insurance and other medical expenses once the divorce becomes final.

6. Life Insurance

Each party shall be responsible for his or her own life insurance once the divorce becomes final. Each party agrees to remove the other as beneficiary from any life insurance policies once the divorce becomes final.

7. Name Change

Neither spouse has requested a name change.

Copy

8. Complete Agreement

This Written agreement is the complete agreement of the parties. There are no other representations, agreements, statements, or prior written matter that shall have any effect. Each party fully understands the agreement, and is signing this agreement freely and voluntarily.

No modification or waiver of any of the terms hereof shall be valid unless in writing and signed by both the parties. No waiver of any breach hereof or default hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default of the same or similar nature.

9. Performance of Necessary Acts

Upon execution and approval by the court of this agreement, each party shall deliver to the other party, or permit the other party to take possession of all items of property to which each is entitled under the terms of this agreement, and all periodic payments required under the terms of this agreement shall commence.

Within 15 days after this agreement is entered, each party shall execute and deliver all deeds, conveyances, titles, certificates, and other documents or instruments necessary and property to effectuate all the terms of this agreement.

Upon the failure of either party to execute and deliver any such deed, conveyance, title, certificate, or other document or instrument to the other party, this agreement shall constitute and operate as such properly executed document and the County Auditor, County Recorder and/or Clerk of Courts and any and all other public and private officials are hereby authorized and directed to accept this agreement or a properly certified copy thereof if lieu of the documented regularly required for such conveyance or transfer.

10. Mutual Release

Except as otherwise provided, the parties release and forever discharge each other from any and all actions, suits, debts, claims, demands, and obligations whatsoever, both in law and in equity, which either of them ever had, now has, or may have or assert against the other upon or by reason of any matter, cause, or thing up to the date of the execution of this agreement.

Copy

Each party waives all rights of inheritance and the right to share in the estate of the other, and waive all rights that would otherwise be available as a surviving spouse, except payments or rights included expressly in this agreement.

11. Waiver of Service of Process by Defendant

By signing this marital dissolution agreement, Defendant waives further service and waives filing an answer to the complaint of divorce filed by Plaintiff. This agreement constitutes a general appearance before the court and answer that shall give the court personal jurisdiction over the Defendant, and constitutes a default judgment for the purpose of granting a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

PERMANENT PARENTING PLAN ORDER

☐ PROPOSED ☒ AGREED ☐ ORDERED BY THE COURT

RICHARD R. ROOKER CLERK

FILE NO. (must be completed) 09D106

DIVISION

D.C.

PLAINTIFF	DEFENDANT
MATTHEW ADAM PATTERSON ☐ Mother ☐ Father	CARRIE MELISSA PATTERSON ☐ Mother ☐ Father

The mother and father will behave with each other and each child so as to provide a loving, stable, consistent and nurturing relationship with the child even though they are divorced. They will not speak badly of each other or the members of the family of the other parent. They will encourage each child to continue to love the other parent and be comfortable in both families.

This plan is a new plan.

Child's Name	Date of Birth
Baron Matthew Patterson	11/18/2002

I. RESIDENTIAL PARENTING SCHEDULE

A. RESIDENTIAL TIME WITH EACH PARENT

The Primary Residential Parent is the mother.

Under the schedule set forth below, each parent will spend the following number of days with the children:

Mother: 313 days Father: 52 days

B. DAY-TO-DAY SCHEDULE

The mother shall have responsibility for the care of the child(ren), except at the following times when the other parent shall have responsibility: every other weekend.

This parenting schedule begins the date this agreement is signed.

Copy

C. HOLIDAY SCHEDULE AND OTHER SCHOOL FREE DAYS

The day to day schedule shall apply at all times, unless otherwise agreed by the parents.

D. FALL VACATION

The day to day schedule shall apply at all times, unless otherwise agreed by the parents.

E. WINTER (CHRISTMAS) VACATION

The day-to-day schedule shall apply at all times, unless otherwise agreed by the parents.

F. SPRING VACATION

The day-to-day schedule shall apply at all times, unless otherwise agreed by the parents.

G. SUMMER VACATION

The day-to-day schedule shall apply at all times, unless otherwise agreed by the parents.

H. TRANSPORTATION ARRANGEMENTS

The place of meeting for the exchange of the child(ren) shall be alternated between each parent's home, or shall be at a neutral meeting place, taking into consideration the schedules and activities taking place during the visitation periods in question.

Payment of long distance transportation costs, if applicable, shall be split between the parents.

If a parent does not possess a valid driver's license, he or she must make reasonable transportation arrangements to protect the child(ren) while in the care of that parent.

I. SUPERVISION OF PARENTING TIME (If applicable)

Does not apply.

J. OTHER

There are no additional provisions.

Copy

II. DECISION-MAKING

A. DAY-TO-DAY DECISIONS

Each parent shall make decisions regarding the day-to-day care of a child while the child is residing with that parent, including any emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of a child.

B. MAJOR DECISIONS

Major decisions regarding each child shall be made as follows:

Educational decisions:	mother
Non-emergency health care:	mother
Religious upbringing:	mother
Extracurricular activities:	mother
All other major decisions:	mother

III. FINANCIAL SUPPORT

A. CHILD SUPPORT

Father's gross monthly income is $4274.00

Mother's gross monthly income is $3,633.00

1. The final child support order is as follows: The father shall pay to the other parent as regular child support the sum of $591.00 per month. The Child Support Worksheet shall be attached to this Order as an Exhibit.
2. Retroactive support is not ordered.

3. Payments shall begin on the 1st day of the month following entry of the divorce decree.

4. This support shall be paid directly to the other parent. Income assignment shall not be required because there is a written agreement by both parties that provides for an alternative arrangement. That agreement is for the Obligor to provide support payments directly to the Obligee. This agreement is evidenced by both parties' signatures on this document.

Copy

5. The parents acknowledge that court approval must be obtained before child support can be reduced or modified.

B. FEDERAL INCOME TAX EXEMPTION

The mother is the parent receiving child support.

The federal income tax exemption for the minor child(ren) shall be awarded as follows: the mother shall receive the tax exemption for all minor child(ren) each year.

The other parent will furnish IRS Form 8332 to the parent entitled to the exemption by February 15th of the year the tax return is due.

A parent may claim the exemptions for the child(ren) so long as child support payments are current by the claiming parent on January 15th of the year when the return is due.

C. PROOF OF INCOME AND WORK-RELATED CHILD CARE EXPENSES

Each parent shall send proof of income to the other parent for the prior calendar year as follows:

- IRS Forms W-2 and 1099 shall be sent to the other parent on or before February 15th.
- A copy of his or her federal income tax return shall be sent to the other parent on or before April 15th or any later date when it is due because of an extension of time for filing.
- The completed form required by the Department of Human Services shall be sent to the Department on or before the date the federal income tax return is due by the parent paying child support. This requirement applies only if a parent is receiving benefits from the Department for a child.

The parent paying work-related child care expenses shall send proof of expenses to the other parent for the prior calendar year and an estimate for the next calendar year, on or before February 15th.

D. HEALTH AND DENTAL INSURANCE

Reasonable health insurance on the child(ren) shall be maintained by the mother. If available through work, the mother shall maintain dental, orthodontic, and optical insurance on the minor child(ren).

Copy

Proof of continuing coverage shall be furnished to the other parent annually or as coverage changes. The parent maintaining coverage shall authorize the other parent to consult with the insurance carrier regarding the coverage in effect.

Uncovered reasonable and necessary medical expenses, which may include but is not limited to, deductibles or co-payments, eyeglasses, contact lens, routine annual physicals, and counseling shall be split 50/50 between mother and father. After insurance has paid its portion, the parent receiving the bill will send it to the other parent within ten days. The other parent will pay his or her share within 30 days of receipt of the bill.

E. LIFE INSURANCE

Both parties agree that the child support obligor shall maintain life insurance coverage in order to secure child support. Such insurance shall be required until the child support obligation has been completed, and each policy shall name the child(ren) as sole irrevocable primary beneficiary, with the other parent as trustee for the benefit of the child(ren), to serve without bond or accounting.

IV. PRIMARY RESIDENTIAL PARENT (CUSTODIAN) FOR OTHER LEGAL PURPOSES

The child(ren) are scheduled to reside the majority of the time with the mother. This parent is designated as the primary residential parent also known as the custodian, SOLELY for purposes of any other applicable state and federal laws. If the parents are listed in Section II as joint decision-makers, then, for purposes of obtaining health or other insurance, they shall be considered to be joint custodians. THIS DESIGNATION DOES NOT AFFECT EITHER PARENT'S RIGHTS OR RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THIS PARENTING PLAN.

V. DISAGREEMENTS OR MODIFICATION OF PLAN

Should the parents disagree about this Parenting Plan or wish to modify it, they must make a good faith effort to resolve the issue by the process selected below before returning to Court. Except for financial support issues including child support, health and dental insurance, uncovered medical and dental expenses, and life insurance, disputes must be submitted to mediation or arbitration by a neutral party chosen by the parents.

The costs of this process may be determined by the alternative dispute process or may be assessed by the Court based upon the incomes of the parents. It must be commenced by notifying the other parent and the Court by written request.

Copy

In the dispute resolution process:

A. Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.

B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.

C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.

D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations;

(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not open or censor;

(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any event of hospitalization, major illness or death of the child;

(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any school records customarily made available to parents. (The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and upon payment of reasonable costs of duplicating.) These include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;

(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical health or other treatment records directly from the physician or health care provider who provided treatment or health care. (The keeper of the records may require a written request which contains a current mailing address and the payment of reasonable costs of duplication.) No person who receives the mailing address of a parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;

(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about the parent or his or her family by the other parent to the child or in the presence of the child;

(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extra-curricular activities, and the opportunity to participate or observe them. These include the following: school activities, athletic activities, church activities and other activities where parental participation or observation would be appropriate;

(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child(ren) for more than two (2) days, an itinerary including telephone numbers for use in the event of an emergency;

(9) The right to access and participation in education on the same basis that is provided to all parents. This includes the right of access to the child for lunch and other activities. However participation or access must be reasonable and not interfere with day-to-day operations or with the child's educational performance.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

If a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than one hundred (100) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;

(2) Location of proposed new residence;

(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and

(4) Statement that the other parent may file a petition in opposition to the move within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice.

VIII. PARENT EDUCATION CLASS

This requirement has been fulfilled by both parents. Failure to attend the parent education class within 60 days of this order is punishable by contempt.

Copy

Under penalty of perjury, we declare that this plan has been proposed in good faith and is in the best interest of each minor child and that the statements herein and on the attached child support worksheets are true and correct. (A notary public is required if this is a proposed plan by one parent rather than one agreed by both parents.)
