IN THE MATTER OF THE APPOINTMENT OF
A SUBSTITUTE TRUSTEE FOR THE ESTATE OF BOSS GOODNER, DECEASED.

ORDER

BE IT REMEMBERED, that on the 29th day of June, 1971, before the Honorable Dorothy Orr, Judge, holding County Court of Bedford County, Tennessee, the petition of Alfred L. English, for the purpose of resigning as Substitute Trustee for the Estate of Boss Goodner, deceased, came on to be heard upon notice to Lorene Goodner Mason, and the entire record in this cause.

And it appeared to the Court that the petition of Alfred L. English, Substitute Trustee, filing for the purpose of resigning as Substitute Trustee was fully sustained by the proof. It further appeared to the Court that Edward Steelman, Trust Officer for the Bedford County Bank agreed in open Court to accept appointment as Trustee with the consent of Lorene Goodner Mason.

And it further appeared to the Court that the assets of the estate transferred to said Alfred L. English on May 14, 1971, by the Administrator with Will annexed, George C. Eblen, consisting of a house and lot at 308 Marshall Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, and the sum of $10,814.32, should be transferred to Bank, to be held in trust for said Lorene Goodner Mason, subject to orders of this Court and the terms of the will of Boss Goodner, deceased.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that said Substitute Trustee Alfred L. English be discharged in respect to all matters present, past or future arising out of or resulting from any management, conduct, or administration of the said trust provision of Item 6 of the will of Boss Goodner, and that he is hereby relieved and discharged from all obligations in that respect.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the Bedford County Bank, be and is hereby appointed Substitute Trustee

The Clerk is directed to issue to The Bedford County Bank,
Letters Testimony as Trustee of the last will and testament of Boss Goodner, and to administer the oath to him as required by law.

The costs of qualifying for appointment of Substitute Trustee, including attorney's fees of $100.00 are taxed against the Trust estate.

The Clerk is directed to enter this order on the current minutes.
