Last Will and Testament

OF

MARY JANE HAYGOOD McEWEN

I, Mary Jane Haygood McEwen, currently residing in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, and hereby revoke any other Wills, Codicils and Living Trusts heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I.

I direct my Executor first to pay, as soon as practicable after my death, all my debts then due, my reasonable funeral expenses, my unpaid charitable pledges (whether or not the same are enforceable obligations of my estate), and the costs of the administration of my estate. My Executor, in his sole and absolute discretion, may pay from my domiciliary estate all or any portion of the costs of ancillary administration and similar proceedings in other jurisdictions.

Except as otherwise expressly indicated in this Will, any property or interest in property which passes on my death, whether under this Will or otherwise, shall pass subject to all encumbrances thereon, whether or not the same are my personal obligations, and shall bear all expenses of transfer, except that as to any debt secured by a security instrument, my Executor may in his sole discretion pay off such debt or permit the secured property to pass subject to such debt.

My Executor is further directed to pay out of that portion of my residuary estate which is not included in the part qualifying for any marital deduction or any charitable deduction, without apportionment, except as otherwise indicated expressly in this Will, all taxes payable by reason of my death, including any penalties thereon, whether the property subject to such taxes passes under this Will or otherwise, including life insurance proceeds and any property over which I have a power of appointment, without requiring any recipient to reimburse my estate for the taxes so paid.

ARTICLE II.

I give, devise and bequeath to my son, Gary Lynn Pierce of Williamson County, Tennessee, all the rest, residue and remainder of my property, both real, personal and mixed, and wherever situated.

I may, subsequent to the execution of this Will, prepare a letter entirely in my own handwriting addressing the distribution of certain items of my tangible personal property. If I prepare such a letter I will keep it with my Will. If my Executor finds such a letter, it is my desire that the wishes expressed in such a letter be carried out. Unless expressly provided otherwise in such letter, any gift therein is to be contingent upon my owning the item or items in question at the time of my death and upon the recipient thereof surviving me.

If I am not survived by the above named beneficiary, or his issue, then I direct that the rest, residue and remainder of my property be divided equally among and distributed to my then living next-of-kin, as determined under the Intestacy Laws of the State of Tennessee, as now in effect, governing the decent and distribution of both real and personal property.

AS IT IS MY HOPE, WISH AND DESIRE that there be no discord in the administration of my estate, I direct that any person or persons who choose to file an objection to this, my Last Will and Testament, shall take nothing under this instrument.

ARTICLE III.

I hereby nominate and appoint my son, Gary Lynn Pierce, of Williamson County, Tennessee as Executor of this, my Last Will and Testament. In the event that he declines for any reason or is unable to serve or dies after appointment or quallfication as Executor, I hereby nominate and appoint my daughter-in-law, Sue Pierce, of Williamson County, Tennessee as First Successor Executor.

ARTICLE IV.

My Executor, (including any substitute or successor personal representative) shall not be required to give bond or file an inventory or any accountings, and if, notwithstanding this direction, a bond is required by law, it is requested and directed that no sureties be required thereon.

My Executor, including all successors thereof, shall further have all powers allowed by law, including those enumerated in Tennessee Code Annotated Section 35-50-110, as it now exists or later be amended, and specifically including the power to sell, mortgage, rent or otherwise enter into any transaction involving real estate I may own at the time of my death, which I hereby entitle to my Executor to administer along with all my other assets.

IN TESTIMONY THEREOF, I have subscribed my name to this, my Last Will and Testament, consisting of this and ____ other typewritten pages, and for the purposes of identification I have subscribed my initials to each page, all in the presence of the persons witnessing it at my request on this the 1st day of Dec., 1993 at Nashville, Tennessee.
