FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter was before the Court on the 24th day of June, 2008, before the Honorable John Mansou, Sr. Judge of the Eighth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee. Based upon the pleadings, exhibits and the entire record, the court finds as follows:

Personal jurisdiction over the defendant is evidenced by his signature on the Marital Dissolution Agreement.

The Marital Dissolution Agreement makes adequate and sufficient provision for the division of marital property and all other marital assets. Further, the Permanent Parenting Plan makes suitable provision for the support and maintenance of, and the care, custody and control of, the minor children of the parties. Further, Irreconcilable Differences have arisen between the parties to this marriage such that further cohabitation as man and wife is unsafe and improper. The Marital Dissolution Agreement and the Permanent Parenting Plan provide as follows:

MARITAL DISSOLUTION AGREEMENT

This agreement made and entered into by and between LILIANA ANGELICA BARRA hereinafter called the "wife"and JOSE MANUEL LOYOLA, hereinafter called the "husband:, in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee.

W I T N E S S E T H

WHEREAS, the parties are married and have three (3) minor children; and

WHEREAS, both parties agree and stipulate that this agreement makes full and adequate provisions for the distribution of the property of the parties; and

WHEREAS, both parties have full knowledge of and have made full disclosure of all separate and marital assets; and

WHEREAS, neither party at the time of this agreement is under the influences of any intoxicant or drug, legal or illegal, nor is any party experiencing any mental problems or conditions that would affect their judgment other than the stress normally to be expected in a divorce; and

WHEREAS, only Wife is represented by Michael H. Sneed, attorney, and the opposing party has obtained independent advice or waived same and is NOT relying upon the advice or services of Michael H. Sneed;

THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein set forth, the parties do agree as follows:

Copy

DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS FILED: The Husband, although having not filed for divorce in the Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Complaint in this cause and stipulates to the truth and accuracy of the statements therein. Further, the Husband consents to any entry of said pleadings by Wife's counsel.

DIVORCE: The parties agree that the Wife should be granted an absolute divorce from the Husband and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

CHILD CUSTODY, SUPPORT and VISITATION : See Parenting Plan.

CREDIT: Parties hereto agree that neither party shall charge or cause to be charged to the other party any purchases which either of them may make after this agreement is entered into and shall not create any engagements or obligations in the name of or against the other nor shall either party hereafter secure or attempt to secure any credit upon or in connection with the other. Each warrants that there are no charges on the other's credit that have not been fully revealed to the other. If there are any such unrevealed charges the party making those charges shall be responsible for the payment of those unrevealed charges.

REAL ESTATE: The Parties own two (2) parcels of real estate located at 357 Flora Maxwell Road, Nashville, Tennessee, 37211 which shall be awarded to the Husband free and clear of any claims by the Wife by the terms of this divorce. The parties also own real estate located at 306 Rural Court, Nashville, Tennessee, 37217 which shall be awarded to the wife free and clear of any claims by the Husband. Each party shall be responsible for the upkeep and maintenance of the property awarded to them by the terms of this divorce.

PERSONAL PROPERTY: The Parties have already divided their personal property and each shall be awarded all personal property presently in their possession.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This agreement contains the entire understanding and agreement between the parties. There are no representation, warranties, covenants or undertaking other than those expressly set forth herein and with full knowledge of the financial condition, nature, character and value of the other's estate. The law of the State of Tennessee shall govern this agreement in all respects.

NON-DISCHARGEABILITY: With respect to each party's responsibility for payment of certain debts and liabilities, and their obligation to hold the other harmless for the payment thereof, the parties understand and agree that their obligation is a non-dischargeable debt under the Bankruptcy Code, this obligation being part of the final financial support settlement for both parties.

NECESSARY DOCUMENTS: Each party at the request of the other will execute and deliver all documents which may be reasonably necessary to give full effect to this agreement.

NON-COMPLIANCE: Should either party incur any expense or legal fees as a result of the breach of any portion of this Marital Dissolution Agreement by the other party, the Court shall award reasonably attorney's fees and suit expenses to the non-defaulting party. No breach, waiver or default of any of the terms of this agreement shall constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default of any of the terms of this agreement.

VOLUNTARY EXECUTION: Each party acknowledges that this agreement has been entered into of his or her own volition with full knowledge and information including tax consequences. In some instances, it represent a compromise of disputed issues. Each believes the terms and condition to be fair and reasonable under the circumstances. No coercion or undue influence has been used by or against either party in making this Agreement. Each party acknowledges that no representations of any kind have been made to him or her as an inducement to enter into this agreement, other than the representation set forth herein.

MODIFICATION: A modification or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective only if made in writing and executed with the same formality as this agreement, and approved by the Court is such approval is required. Failure of either party to insist

B. The parents shall use the process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the Plan.
C. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached, and it shall be provided to each parent.
D. If the Court finds that a parent willfully failed to appear without good reason, the Court, upon motion, may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

VI. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

Under T.C.A. § 36-6-101 of Tennessee law, both parents are entitled to the following rights:

(1) The right to unimpeded telephone conversations with the child at least twice a week at reasonable times and for reasonable durations;

(2) The right to send mail to the child which the other parent shall not open or censor;

(3) The right to receive notice and relevant information as soon as practicable but within twenty-four (24) hours of any event of hospitalization, major illness or death of the child;

(4) The right to receive directly from the child's school any school records customarily made available to parents. (The school may require a written request which includes a current mailing address and upon payment of reasonable costs of duplicating.) These include copies of the child's report cards, attendance records, names of teachers, class schedules, and standardized test scores;

(5) Unless otherwise provided by law, the right to receive copies of the child's medical health or other treatment records directly from the physician or health care provider who provided treatment or health care. (The keeper of the records may require a written request which contains a current mailing address and the payment of reasonable costs of duplication.) No person who receives the mailing address of a parent as a result of this requirement shall provide such address to the other parent or a third person;

(6) The right to be free of unwarranted derogatory remarks made about the parent or his or her family by the other parent to the child or in the presence of the child;

(7) The right to be given at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, whenever possible, of all extra-curricular activities, and the opportunity to participate or observe them. These include the following: school activities, athletic activities, church activities and other activities where parental participation or observation would be appropriate;

(8) The right to receive from the other parent, in the event the other parent leaves the state with the minor child or children for more than two (2) days, an itinerary including telephone numbers for use in the event of an emergency;

(9) The right to access and participation in education on the same basis that is provided to all parents. This includes the right of access to the child for lunch and other activities. However participation or access must be reasonable and not interfere with day-to-day operations or with the child's educational performance.

VII. NOTICE REGARDING PARENTAL RELOCATION

The Tennessee statute (T.C.A. § 36-6-108) which governs the notice to be given in connection with the relocation of a parent reads in pertinent part as follows:

If a parent who is spending intervals of time with a child desires to relocate outside the state or more than one hundred (100) miles from the other parent within the state, the relocating parent shall send a notice to the other parent at the other parent's last known address by registered or certified mail. Unless excused by the court for exigent circumstances, the notice shall be mailed not later than sixty (60) days prior to the move. The notice shall contain the following:

(1) Statement of intent to move;
(2) Location of proposed new residence;
(3) Reasons for proposed relocation; and
(4) Statement that the other parent may file a petition in opposition to the move within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice.
