This is an instrument of clarification regarding the previously mentioned property. We, James Andrew Johnson, Stephanie Johnson-Smalley and Rachel Johnson-Abendroth, being surviving heirs of James Aaron Johnson wish to have acknowledged an existing cemetery known as The Johnson Family Cemetery on said property. Said property is located in Davidson County and maintained by family members.

This unimproved property consists of 3.91 total acres. The southward end of said property, containing +/- 1.3 acres has been used as a family cemetery since November of 2000. The cemetery is bounded by fencing, is identified by a sign, has gated access, a large marble engraved stone and the grave markers of our parents who are buried there.

We, the surviving heirs and owners, do acknowledge this designated property as The Johnson Family Cemetery. Furthermore, we understand and accept the limitations placed on the remaining property in said parcel as a direct result of the cemetery.
