AFFIDAVIT OF TRUST

STATE OF TENNESSEE

COUNTY OF DAVIDSON

I, Alice M. Booth, after first being duly sworn, make oath to the following:

That on February 2, 1998, my husband, Charles T. Booth, Jr. and I established the Charles T. Booth, Jr. and Alice M. Booth Joint Caring Trust (the Trust) to facilitate the disposition of our respective estates. At the time of death of Charles T. Booth, Jr. on December 4, 2010, as well as this date, said Trust was in existence and in good standing.

On November 18, 2003, the property located at 1204 Iris Meadows Cove, Hermitage, Tennessee, 37076, was purchased and recorded in Instrument No. 20031120-0169279. It was intended to be titled in the name of the Trust. However, due to scrivener error, the grantee was misnamed as the Charles T. Booth, Jr. and wife, Alice M. Booth, Trustees or Their Successor in Trust under the Charles T. Booth, Jr. and Alice M. Booth Revocable Living Trust dated the 2nd day of February, 1998, but should have been correctly titled in the name of the Charles T. Booth, Jr. and Alice M. Booth Joint Caring Trust.

Article Seven of the Trust, Section 1, Subparagraph d, provides that if the husband Trustmaker is the first to die, all property conveyed to the marital trust should be titled as "the Trustee of the Alice M. Booth Marital Trust, under trust agreement dated the 2nd day of February, 1998."

Article Six, Section 2 of the Trust provides that as the surviving Trustee, I have complete authority to make allocations of the Trust property between the Marital and Family Trust. That allocation may be made in cash, or in kind, in undivided interest, or in any portion thereof between the Trusts.

Article Seven of the Trust, Section 2, provides that the surviving Trustmaker may alter, amend, revoke or terminate this Marital Trust in whole or in part, and may add, substitute or remove Trust property and change the beneficiaries or the plan of distribution.

As surviving Trustee of the Trust, for reasons recited herein, I have the authority and discretion to distribute the assets of the Trust in any manner.

Further Affiant sayeth not.

Alice M. Booth
