LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF MARY LEE ESPY SMITH

I, Mary Lee Espy Smith, a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills and/or Codicils by me at any time heretofore made.

ARTICLE I

I direct that all of my funeral expenses, just debts and estate and inheritance taxes incident to my death be paid by my Executor, hereinafter named, as soon after my decease as is practicable, from my general estate.

ARTICLE II

I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my husband, James W. Smith, all the rest and residue of my estate, of whatever kind, character and description, real, personal, intangible and mixed, and wherever situated and which I may own or have the right to dispose of at my death and which remains after payment of my debts, funeral expenses and death taxes of whatever kind.

ARTICLE III

In the event my husband, James W. Smith, should pre-decease me, I direct my Executor to distribute in kind, or in cash, as he in his discretion may determine, to my children, Marquentas A. Deaderick and Deborah A. Smith, in equal shares, per stirpes, three-fourths of the rest and residue of my estate, of whatever kind, character and description, real, personal, intangible and mixed, and wherever situated and which I may own or have the right to dispose of at my death and which remains after payment of my just debts, funeral expenses and death taxes of whatever kind.

In the event my husband, James W. Smith, should pre-decease me, I direct my Executor to distribute, in kind, or in cash, as he in his discretion may determine, to my grandchilren, then living, the remaining one-fourth of the rest and residue of my estate, of whatever kind, character and description, real, personal, intangible and mixed, and wherever situated and which may own or have the right to dispose of at my death and which remains after payment of just debts, funeral expenses and death taxes of whatever kind.

ARTICLE IV

I expressly will and direct that my Executor shall have full power and authority to sell and convey real estate, to sell, liquidate, or operate any business I may own at the time of my death, and to do any and all things necessary and proper for the handling of my estate. In the operation of any business which I may own at the time of my death, the Executor is exonerated from any loss which may result thereby, so long as he acts in good faith and is not guilty of negligence in the handling of same. My Executor may, if in his sole discretion he deems it advisable, use the proceeds of the sale of any real estate as provided in this paragraph for the payment of any debts due and owing by my estate.

ARTICLE V

I direct that the interests of the beneficiaries hereunder shall not be liable or subject in any manner to or for their anticipations, assignments, sales, pledges, debts, contracts, engagements or liabilities, or subject or liable to attachment, execution or sequestration under any legal, equitable or other process.

ARTICLE VI

I hereby nominate and appoint my husband James W. Smith, as Executor of my estate and direct that he be permitted to serve as such without bond. In the event my said husband pre-deceases me, or be unable or unwilling to serve, I appoint Roland M. Lowell to serve as Executor of my estate, to serve as such without bond.
