LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

EVELYN B. VALENTINE

I, EVELYN B. VALENTINE, a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, and I hereby revoke all wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE ONE

Payment of Debts and Taxes

I direct that all debts that shall be legally owing by me at the time of my death and the expenses of administration of my estate be paid by my Executor from the principal of my residuary estate as soon as practicable after my death, except that as to any debt secured by real estate, whether by mortgage or by any other security instrument, my Executor shall permit such real estate to pass subject to such debt. All estate, inheritance, succession, legacy and other death duties or taxes of any nature which may be assessed or imposed upon or with respect to property passing under this Will shall be paid out of the principal of my residuary estate as part of the expenses of administration and with no right of reimbursement from any of the legatees, devisees, or beneficiaries hereunder except that no such taxes shall be charged to and paid out of assets qualifying for the estate tax charitable deduction unless all other shares are insufficient to pay such taxes. Such taxes which become payable with respect to property passing other than under the terms of this Will, shall be equitably apportioned among the recipients of such property.

Allocation of Income in Respect of a Decedent

If my estate consists of Income in Respect of a Decedent (IRD) or other income as determined under the federal income tax laws, then the Executor shall allocate such IRD or other income to the shares of the organizations which are exempt from income taxation under the federal income tax laws, except that such allocation shall not increase or decrease the shares of such organizations.
