FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came to be heard on the 16th day of July, 1991, before the Honorable Muriel Robinson-Rice, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court upon Complaint for Absolute Divorce filed by Sherry Whorton McMillan. It appears to the Court from testimony of complainant, statements of counsel and the entire record that Wife withdraws all grounds from her Complaint except for the ground of Irreconcilable Differences and Husband withdraws his Answer and Counter-Complaint. It further appears that the parties have entered into a signed notarized Marital Dissolution Agreement as provided for by T.C.A. § 36-4-103 and that the time prescribed by law has lapsed since the filing of the original Complaint, from all of which it is found that Wife is entitled to an absolute divorce on the ground of Irreconcilable Differences.

The Court further finds that the parties have made adequate and sufficient provision by written agreement for an equitable settlement of any property rights between the parties. It is THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that all grounds except for Irreconcilable Differences are withdrawn from Sherry Whorton McMillan's Complaint, the Answer and Counter-Complaint of Husband are withdrawn and Sherry Whorton McMillan is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from Husband, Robert Withers McMillan, on the ground of Irreconcilable Differences and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties are hereby perpetually dissolved.
