ITEM III

I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, both real and personal, of every kind and description and wherever located, to my beloved wife, HANNAH ELIZABETH DURHAM, provided she survives me by as much as ten (10) days to be hers absolutely in fee simple forever.

ITEM IV

In the event my said wife does not survive me as set forth above I then give, devise and bequeath all of my property, both real and personal, of every kind and description and wherever located, including any automobiles or any lapsed or void bequests and devises in equal shares to my then living children with an equal share, per stirpes, for the then living lineal descendants of a deceased child or children of mine, in fee simple.

ITEM V

I hereby name, constitute and appoint my wife, HANNAH ELIZABETH DURHAM and J. E. FARMAKIS, as co-Executors of this my last will and testament, and I confer upon them power, as such to administer my estate, excusing them from making any return or returns or from giving any bond or bonds to the Court of Ordinary or any other court or courts whatsoever. I further relieve them from making an inventory, giving them the full and complete power to deal with my estate as fully and amply as I could do were I in life, hereby ratifying all that my Executors may do. I empower them to sell, mortgage, encumber and to trade with any and every part of my estate, at public or private sale, with or without notice or advertisement, as their judgment may dictate, and for whatever terms they may deem best. The powers herein granted are to be considered broadly and not to be limited in any respect.
